PLAYFLY HUSKERS RADIO NETWORK

The Playfly Huskers Radio Network was established Oct. 1, 2022, and is headquartered in the production studio on Memorial Stadium's East side. Playfly became Nebraska's exclusive multimedia rights holder, signing a 15-year agreement.

Nebraska's partnership with Playfly leverages the company's multimedia rights expertise and taps into its expansive suite of marketing and media solutions to further grow the Huskers brand regionally, nationally and globally. Together, Nebraska and Playfly work to maximize traditional MMR assets, such as in-venue signage and broadcast feature elements, in addition to leveraging Playfly's full capabilities to enhance Nebraska's digital footprint and fan experience. General manager Jason Rathe and his staff oversee all sales and sponsorship fulfillment for the Playfly Huskers Radio Network.

Playfly handles the broadcast efforts for Husker football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. In addition, the Huskers Radio Network produces Sports Nightly and podcasts. Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday (6-8 p.m., CT) year-round across the network. During football season, Sports Nightly features a weekly football radio show on Tuesday evenings with Coach Rhule and Husker assistant coaches.

In the state of Nebraska, KXSP AM 590 ESPN (590 AM) and KEZO Z-92 (92.3 FM) serve as Omaha affiliates. KXSP-AM's strong signal reaches a good portion of the Midwest day and night, including parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Kansas. KBBK (B107.3 FM) and KLIN (1400 AM) serve as the Lincoln affiliates for women's basketball with 98.1 FM also carrying the football broadcast. KRVN (880 AM) is a powerful central Nebraska affiliate that reaches around the state. In addition, the network has several dozen locally based affiliates across Nebraska. All broadcasts are streamed live for free on Huskers.com and the Huskers mobile app.

The on-air talent for Nebraska women's basketball is Matt Coatney, a veteran sportscaster who enters his 23rd full season as the play-by-play voice of the Huskers. He also serves as the host of Nebraska football's Big Red Reaction. Jeff Griesch will provide women's basketball color commentary for the 26th season. COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES FOR BOOSTERS

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big Ten Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA PRINCIPLES

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

Questions and Answers for Fans, Boosters, Alumni and Representatives of Athletic Interests

DEFINITIONS

Q: What is a booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either.

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTEREST (I.E. BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: Who is a Prospective Student-Athlete?

A: A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a Nebraska booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Q: Who is a Student-Athlete?

A: A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the Nebraska athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Q: What is Contact?

A: Contact is ANY face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and a Nebraska staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Q: What is Recruiting?

A: Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in Nebraska's intercollegiate athletic program.

GUIDELINES

Q: Who is a Booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either.

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS (I.E., BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What constitutes impermissible contact by a Booster?

A: Phone calls to prospects (9th to 12th grade) and their relatives placed for recruiting purposes (questions about the athletic program at Nebraska must be directed to the coach); writing, paging, text messages or instant messages to a prospect to encourage Nebraska attendance; contact with a prospect at a high school or club contest; contact with a prospect or his/her coach, principal, or counselor to evaluate the prospect; visiting the prospect's educational institution to pick up videotape or transcripts for evaluation purposes; contacting a prospect to congratulate him/her for signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Nebraska; giving anything of value to a prospect to induce him/her to attend Nebraska; contact of any kind while the prospect is on the Nebraska campus for an official or unofficial visit.

RECRUITING CONTACTS, NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What are the rules of employment for a student-athlete?

A: A student-athlete may be employed during the academic year or summer vacation period; receive compensation equal to the going rate for similar services in the locale; receive compensation only for work performed; accept employment from more than one employer and earn unlimited income; receive benefits provided to all other employees; teach sport-related individual skill instruction or fee-for-lesson sessions. A student-athlete may not conduct personal sport camps or promote, market, advertise or endorse a commercial business or product.

Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan.

EMPLOYMENT, NCAA BYLAW 12

Q: What are non-permissible benefits?

A: Free or reduced-fee housing/rent including the use of vacation or seasonal homes; free or reduced-fee meals; loans or cash advances in pay or salary; tuition costs or school supply expenses; gifts or presents of any type regardless of the occasion or purpose; use of telephone for long distance or use of telephone cards and cell phones; free use of any motor vehicle, boat or recreational vehicle; free use of services (i.e., automobile repair, hair care, laundry, copying, faxing, etc.); free or reduced-fee memberships at golf courses, health clubs, etc. (This list is not exhaustive. Only benefits authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan).

BENEFITS AND PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT, NCAA BYLAW 16

Q: What types of promotional activities may the student-athlete be permitted to participate?

A: Charitable, educational or non-profit promotions and events with requested approval from the Athletic Compliance Office prior to the event.

Q: What types of promotional activities are not permissible?

A: Any fundraising activity that supports a high school organization or group that assists prospective-aged students; use of his/her name or picture; or appear to promote or market a commercial business or product.

HUSKERS RELOAD FOR POSTSEASON RUN

Maddie Krull (42), Annika Stewart (21), Darian White (0) and Jaz Shelley (1) will provide leadership and experience for the Huskers in 2023-24. Shelley and White enter their fifth years of college basketball, while Krull and Stewart will play their fourth seasons.

After earning postseason eligibility for the fourth consecutive season in 2022-23, the Nebraska women's basketball is hungry for more entering the 2023-24 campaign.

Graduate Jaz Shelley enters her third season at Nebraska after capturing first-team All-Big Ten honors a year ago.

The 5-9 guard from Moe, Australia led Nebraska in scoring (14.5 ppg), assists (6.2 apg), steals (1.7 spg) and three-pointers per game last season, while adding 4.8 rebounds per contest.

Despite Shelley's impressive all-around season, the Huskers still came up a win or two short of a return trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Nebraska finished with an 18-15 overall record after advancing to the Super 16 in the Postseason WNIT. The Huskers managed an 8-10 Big Ten mark that included top-25 road wins at Maryland and Illinois.

Alexis Markowski added second-team All-Big Ten honors at center for the second straight season. The 6-3 junior from Lincoln, Neb., nearly averaged a double-double with 11.9 points and 9.8 rebounds per game.

Shelley and Markowski return as the anchors outside and inside for Nebraska at both ends of the court.

The Huskers will miss three-time honorable-mention all-conference forward Isabelle Bourne, who averaged 12.6 points and 6.7 rebounds per game last season. They will also miss four-year starter Sam Haiby, who joined Bourne as a three-time All-Big Ten honoree. Haiby averaged 10.8 points and 5.0 rebounds a year ago, but missed a good portion of the season while battling injuries.

During the offseason, the Huskers were bolstered by the transfer of Darian White. The three-time first-team All-Big Sky guard produced 1,716 points, 612 rebounds, 449 assists and 260 steals in her four-year career at Montana State.

The 5-6 point guard is expected to add creativity and scoring ability at the rim, in the mid range and at the free throw line for the Huskers in her fifth season of college basketball. She should also help Nebraska turn up its defensive pressure.

While the Huskers hope the addition of White helps ease the loss of Haiby, the Big Red are also excited about the return of Allison Weidner to the backcourt.

Nebraska's fortunes were affected by a season-ending knee injury to Weidner in the fourth quarter of the Big Red's triple-overtime victory over Kansas on Dec. 21, 2022. Weidner averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists through Nebraska's first 13 games, despite playing just one minute in a win over Tarleton before suffering an eye injury. She also missed nearly the entire fourth quarter against Kansas.

In Nebraska's 90-67 win at No. 20 Maryland on Dec. 4, Weidner erupted for 13 points, 15 rebounds and five assists. In NU's 82-54 win over Wisconsin to improve to 2-0 in the Big Ten, Weidner added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists.

Nebraska averaged nearly 4.0 more points per game with Weidner in the lineup than without her.

The Husker backcourt will be solidified even more by the return of Maddie Krull. The fourth-year collegian and second-year Husker averaged 6.1 points and 2.0 rebounds last year, while stepping into a starting role following injuries to Weidner, Haiby and Trinity Brady. Krull, a 5-9 guard out of Millard South High School in Omaha, was a member of two NCAA Tournament teams as a starting guard at South Dakota.

The Huskers also return junior Kendall Moriarty and sophomore Callin Hake to add talented depth to Nebraska's guard rotation. Moriarty appeared in all 33 games last season with one start, averaging 16 minutes per contest. At 6-1, Moriarty's size and presence on defense provide Nebraska with versatility in the backcourt.

Hake played in 31 games with one start as a true freshman, and proved herself as a reliable three-point threat, knocking down 33 threes and hitting 33.7 percent of her attempts.

The Big Red also expect to go deeper in the backcourt with the addition of three-time North Dakota High School Player of the Year Logan Nissley. The 6-0 guard out of Bismarck Century is a dangerous threat from long range and could help Nebraska create more space offensively.

While Nebraska appears to have added depth and versatility in the backcourt, the Huskers will build around Markowski inside while focusing on versatility up front as well.

A two-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate, Markowski has averaged 12.2 points and 8.9 rebounds over 66 games in her first two seasons at Nebraska. She already ranks No. 8 in school history with 21 career double-doubles. Last season, she was the only Big Ten player to average a double-double in regular-season league action with 12.4 points and 10.2 boards per contest over 18 games. She finished with 15 double-doubles on the year, trailing only Iowa's Caitlin Clark among Big Ten players in that category.

Markowski also led the Big Ten with 322 total rebounds a year ago - the fifth-highest single-season total in Nebraska history.

Nebraska may look to a young Australian to help replace Bourne at the power forward spot alongside Markowski inside.

Jessica Petrie, a 6-2 freshman forward from Gold Coast has played progressively up the levels of the Australian National Program.

Petrie and fellow freshman Natalie Potts, a two-time Missouri High School Player of the Year, could provide immediate help inside along with experienced returners Annika Stewart, Kendall Coley and Maggie Mendelson.

Petrie played for the Australian U19 National Team at the FIBA World Cup in Spain in July of 2023, after competing for the U16, U17 and U18 teams at major international events in 2022.

She averaged 17.6 points, 9.1 rebounds and 3.0 assists for the Basketball Centre of Excellence in Australia's NBL1 in 2023.

Potts, a 6-2 forward from O'Fallon, Mo., totaled more than 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in her high school career, helping Incarnate Word Academy to three consecutive Class 6 state championships, a final No. 6 national ranking from MaxPreps and a 100-game winning streak.

Stewart has been a reliable contributor for Nebraska for three seasons. She has totaled 478 points and 229 rebounds over 86 games and has the ability to play roles as both a stretch four or a stretch five. The 6-3 post has knocked down 72 three-pointers in her career. Last season, she played in all 33 games with four starts for the Big Red.

For Nebraska to climb in the Big Ten standings after finishing eighth in 2022-23, the Huskers will have to perform at a high level against some of the nation's best teams.

Iowa returns national player of the year Caitlin Clark from a team that advanced to the NCAA title game after winning the Big Ten Tournament in 2023.

The Huskers took the Hawkeyes down to the wire in a four-point loss at Carver-Hawkeye Arena in Iowa City on Jan. 28.

Nebraska also split its 2022-23 season series with Maryland, before the Terrapins advanced to the 2023 NCAA Elite Eight.

The Big Red also stayed within single digits of another Big Ten NCAA Elite Eight team in Ohio State (Jan. 14), after battling Big Ten regular-season champion Indiana into overtime on the road in Bloomington (Jan. 1).

The Huskers knocked off NCAA-bound Purdue on the road in West Lafayette and split with NCAA-qualifier Illinois, including a 33-point road win in Champaign on Feb. 22.

Overall seven Big Ten teams advanced to the 2023 NCAA Tournament, while Nebraska represented the conference well in the WNIT.

Nebraska also plays Big Ten road games at Michigan State, Penn State, Minnesota and Wisconsin to complete an 18-game league slate.

The Big Ten Tournament returns to the Target Center in Minneapolis (March 6-10) before the NCAA Tournament Selection Show (March 18). The Huskers hope to be in position to start the NCAA Tournament after the First Four (March 20-21), with 16 campus sites hosting the first and second rounds (March 22-25).

NCAA Regionals move to Albany, N.Y., and Portland, Ore. (March 29-April 1). The NCAA Women's Final Four will be held in Cleveland (April 5-7).

Juniors Allison Weidner (3), Kendall Coley (32), Alexis Markowski (40) and Kendall Moriarty (15) bring size, talent and experience to a versatile Nebraska roster in 2023-24.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905. Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020 and Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved nationwide testing in 2005. A year later, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

Also in 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events annually as the first internationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conference in the country. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada alone via all major video distributors in those countries and approximately 300 additional video providers across North America. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. In addition, the B1G+ ("Big Ten Plus") platform streams more than 1,700 conference events each season.

The Big Ten took its media reach to unprecedented heights on Aug. 18, 2022, with the announcement of a groundbreaking media rights agreement to provide fans with unparalleled access and exposure to its student-athletes and member institutions. Beginning with the 2023-24 academic year and continuing through 2029-30, the Big Ten will increase distribution coast-to-coast, featuring exclusive content across linear networks FOX, CBS and NBC, as well as NBCUniversal's direct-to-consumer streaming platform, Peacock. The breadth of new partners, in addition to BTN and FS1, will place conference football, women's and men's basketball and Olympic sports student-athletes on the biggest stage and provide fans with the most exciting matchups across traditional over-the-air linear television and direct-to-consumer streaming.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011. The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams. The Big Ten officially stretched from coast to coast on June 30, 2022, when it was announced the COP/C had unanimously voted to admit the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) and the University of Southern California (USC), effective Aug. 2, 2024. Competition will begin for those institutions in conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten Headquarters and Conference Center, located in Rosemont, Illinois, hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance-related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum — the Big Ten Experience — which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Petitti and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 27 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and remains a vital resource for media and fans seeking information on the Big Ten.

On March 7, 2020, in advance of the rising tide of the COVID-19 pandemic, the conference partnered with all 14 of its member institutions to create the Big Ten Task Force for Emerging Infectious Diseases. This group was formed to provide counsel and sound medical advice to ensure the health, safety and wellness of the Big Ten's students, coaches, administrators and fans. Less than two months later on May 4, 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members Johns Hopkins (men's and women's lacrosse) and Notre Dame (men's ice hockey). The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

One of the signature moments of Warren's tenure as commissioner came on June 1, 2020, when, following the death of Minneapolis resident George Floyd, he penned an open letter in which he announced the formation of what became known as the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest.

A product of the conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

The purpose of the Performance Nutrition department is to provide services that enhance the student athlete's overall health and recovery.

GOALS

- To offer a variety of food and beverage products that are readily available and accessible for all student athletes.
- To provide a wealth of education and resources that each student athlete can utilize to enhance their overall level of knowledge and awareness as it pertains to fueling their body for competition and recovery.

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

Performance Nutrition seeks to provide fueling options and education to Husker student athletes, so they are adequately prepared and knowledgeable on the impact nutrition can have in their lives as athletes and after sport.

NUTRITION OVERVIEW

Our Training Table is the primary resource for student athletes to seek out holistic fueling options. Our Training Table operates and sets its menus with a student athlete first mentality. We seek to provide healthy, accommodating nutrition options for all our athletes at breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Our fueling stations are the secondary resource for student-athletes to fulfill their fueling needs. The primary goal of our fueling stations is to provide quick and easy sources of nutrition and hydration to supplement training and competition.

Team rooms and competition fueling are an additional asset our student-athletes can utilize. Each team has a dietitian that coordinates additional nutrition options to team rooms and around competition.

Husker Bucks are provided to student-athletes to supplement meals on their own. Athletes have the chance to purchase a meal at local restaurants or choose to use the dollar value on groceries.

EDUCATION AND CONSULTATION

Each team has a sport specific dietitian who oversees the nutritional needs per team. Our dietitians are a great resource for education and consultation to our student athletes. The dietitians conduct DEXAs for body composition assessment, hydration testing, consult with athletes individually, provide nutrition education team talks (hydration, Pre-workout fueling, recovery nutrition) and coordinating materials, host cooking classes & grocery store tours, and assist with fueling options surrounding competitions.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING
Eight academic counselors, three learning specialists, two assistant academic counselors and one administrative assistant are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT
A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 75-100 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. Tutorial support is provided both in-person and virtually. Nebraska's tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL
Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall within the Herman Student Life Complex that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING
Academic staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS
Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting neuropsychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION
Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING
Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES
All student-athletes are provided the opportunity to have a laptop for use during their academic career at Nebraska. The Herman Student Life Complex has printers and desktop computers available for student-athletes to use in the facility.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered in Lincoln by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a university system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. The flagship University of Nebraska–Lincoln is an educational institution of international stature. Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie "R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity" category. Nebraska is also a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The BTAA includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and partners with the University of Chicago. The Big Ten Academic Alliance and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $11.5 billion — more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined — and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students with approximately 50,000 faculty members.

RODNEY BENNETT

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor First Season Middle Tennessee State (1990)

Dr. Rodney D. Bennett is the 21st chancellor of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, Nebraska's flagship, Land-Grant and Big Ten institution. He is a 30-year veteran of higher education with a track record of growing research, increasing student success and building impactful partnerships.

Chancellor Bennett came to Nebraska after nine years of successful leadership at the University of Southern Mississippi. During his tenure as president, USM was reclassified from a Carnegie R2 to an R1 university, signaling growth in research prestige and funding. He also invested in programs to support student recruitment, retention and outcomes, including for the 30 percent of USM's first-generation students. His efforts led to an improvement in the university's six-year graduation rate.

While at USM, Dr. Bennett established new faculty positions in high-growth areas and increased the average salary for full-time faculty; oversaw $300 million in facilities work; and launched the largest fundraising campaign in the University of Southern Mississippi's history. He was a strong champion of athletics, investing in new facilities and programs to support student-athletes, including a dedicated mental health counselor to serve student-athletes. Throughout his time as president, he brought a conservative approach to budget management, meeting or exceeding the budgetary goals set by the Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning Board of Trustees.

Prior to his role at Southern Miss, Dr. Bennett served at the University of Georgia for more than a decade. He was the senior administrator for student programs and services for Georgia's 34,000-plus students; oversaw $150 million in capital projects; and made key staff and programmatic investments in extracurriculars, mental health programs and other areas to better support students.

Dr. Bennett also has been the dean of students at Winthrop in Rock Hill, South Carolina, and associate dean of student life at Middle Tennessee State.

Chancellor Bennett values community leadership and service. He has served on numerous boards, including the Mississippi Aquarium, Northeast Georgia Girl Scouts of America, Catholic Health East (Philadelphia), and St. Mary's Health Care System in Athens, Georgia. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity and Past Sire Archon for Sigma Pi Phi fraternity, The Boulé.

Dr. Bennett earned a bachelor's degree in mass communication (1990), a master's degree in educational administration (1992), and an education specialist degree (1993) from Middle Tennessee State. He earned his Doctor of Education degree from Tennessee State (1996).

He and his wife, Temple, are the parents of two adult daughters, Colby and Logan.

Vice Chancellor, Director of Athletics Third Season Nebraska (1993)

A veteran administrator and College Football Hall of Famer, Trev Alberts is in his third year as Vice Chancellor, Director of Athletics at the University of Nebraska in 2023-24. Alberts returned to his alma mater after spending 12 years at Nebraska-Omaha, guiding the program through a successful transition to the Division I level.

He led the development of the N-Vest Nebraska program to award $5,980 per year to student-athletes who meet academic benchmarks. Alberts also spearheaded the charge to complete the fundraising for Nebraska's Go Big Project, which will provide Nebraska football with a new facility scheduled to open this fall. The project will also house academic, life skills, nutrition and support services for all Nebraska student-athletes.

A tireless worker who puts both the interests of student-athletes and fans first, Alberts helped orchestrate a qualitative survey of Nebraska's fan base to help shape the future of Memorial Stadium's game-day atmosphere. Alberts has also focused much of his time on developing the first strategic plan for Nebraska Athletics in 15 years. He has also committed himself to providing intense support and a unifying vision for Nebraska's coaches across all sports.

He continued to make a mark on Nebraska Athletics in his second year. Alberts conducted a thorough, nationwide search for a new leader for the Husker football program in the fall of 2022 that resulted in the hiring of Matt Rhule as Nebraska's new head coach. Rhule has a proven track record as a program builder at the college level, winning conference championships at both Temple and Baylor. Since his hiring, Rhule has energized the Nebraska fan base and attracted a top-25 recruiting class to the Husker program.

Alberts also spearheaded a new 15-year multimedia rights agreement between Nebraska Athletics and Playfly Sports, an emerging leader in sports marketing, media and technology. The partnership is one of the nation's most comprehensive multimedia rights agreements and has a total value of $301 million for Nebraska over the life of the contract.

Nebraska's athletic achievements in 2022-23 included NCAA top-10 finishes by wrestling, rifle, bowling, women's outdoor track and field, men's gymnastics and men's indoor track and field. In all, 10 Husker teams posted top-20 national finishes, while the men's track team captured the Big Ten outdoor title under first-year coach Justin St. Clair.

Academically, Nebraska student-athletes continued to shine with a school-record 95 percent graduation rate across all sports for the second straight year. All of Nebraska's programs had at least an 88 percent GSR score in the most recent report.

Alberts' impact on college athletics stretches beyond the Nebraska campus. A respected leader at the Big Ten and national level, Alberts serves on both the NCAA's Division I Football Oversight Committee and the NCAA Division I Competition Committee.

Alberts' tenure leading UNO athletics was marked by successes in competition and in academics; by transitioning the university's athletic programs to NCAA Division I in 2011; and by establishing new homes for many UNO athletic teams, including Baxter Arena, the Maverick Park baseball/softball complex and the soccer pitch at Caniglia Field.

Alberts took the bold step in announcing that Omaha would reclassify from Division II to Division I in all sports in 2011 while simultaneously securing conference affiliation with the Summit League for all of the department's then-Division II programs. His vision for UNO's reclassifying teams was demonstrated even before the four-year transition period had ended. The Omaha baseball team won back-to-back Summit League regular-season championships in 2013 and 2014, while the men's basketball team made its first Division I postseason appearance in 2014 with a berth in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

During UNO's time in the Division I ranks under Alberts tenure, the Mavericks had six teams and four student-athletes qualify for the NCAA Tournament, including hockey advancing to the Frozen Four in 2015 and men's soccer reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament in the spring of 2021. He also expanded opportunities, adding men's golf and men's soccer in 2011, and Omaha began a men's swimming and diving program in 2021-22.

Throughout his tenure in Omaha, Alberts was focused on enhancing the student-athlete experience, including the construction and staffing of the Hamilton Academic Excellence Room and the development of the Ethel S. Abbott Student-Athlete Development Wing. Those efforts paid off in Nebraska-Omaha student-athletes posting consistent collective semester grade point averages above 3.3 for 18 consecutive semesters, including at least a 3.5 in each of his final three semesters.

The facilities around Omaha Athletics received a major uplift during his tenure. Maverick Park opened in March of 2021 to rave reviews as the home to the Mavericks' baseball and softball programs. Funding for the complex, which includes a 1,500-seat baseball facility and a 650-seat softball facility, were raised privately and provided both programs a permanent on-campus home for the first time.

Another crowning achievement was the opening of Baxter Arena in 2015. Alberts directed efforts to secure community support and funding to build the on-campus arena, which allowed the nationally prominent hockey program to play on campus and also serve as the home of the men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs. Caniglia Field underwent renovations in 2012, making it one of the finest collegiate soccer facilities in the country, highlighted by a FIFA 2-star rated playing surface and one of the largest LED videoboards in a soccer-only college facility.

Alberts' work on behalf of hockey, UNO's established Division I sport, also paid dividends. He successfully guided the Mavericks into the new National Collegiate Hockey Conference in 2013-14. The following year, Omaha reached the 2015 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition, Alberts and his team led Omaha Athletics into a partnership with Learfield, a national leader in the marketing of collegiate athletics, and developed Omaha Sports Properties. As the exclusive corporate sponsorship sales unit for UNO Athletics, Omaha Sports Properties further enhanced revenue and increased brand prominence locally, regionally and nationally.

As part of UNO's reclassification to Division I, Alberts oversaw the rebranding of UNO athletics with new primary and secondary logos and a greater focus on strengthening the Maverick brand both regionally and nationally.

As a student-athlete, Alberts was an All-American on and off the football field as a Husker Blackshirt. He was Nebraska's first Butkus Award winner in 1993, helping Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers to an undefeated regular season and an Orange Bowl appearance against Florida State. A first-team All-American by every major publication in 1993, he was also the Football News National Defensive Player of the Year, the Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year, and the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year. His No. 34 jersey was retired at the 1994 Red-White Spring Game. In 2015, he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Alberts earned the NCAA's highest honor, The Today's Top Six Award. A three-time Academic All-Big Eight honoree, he was an Academic All-American in 1993. He graduated from Nebraska before his senior season.

Alberts was the fifth pick in the 1994 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts and played for the Colts until 1996. Following his NFL career, he served as an analyst on college and professional football games for major national networks, including ESPN, CNN/SI and CBS Sports Network.

Alberts and his wife Angela have three children – Chase (and his wife, Cassie), Ashtynne and Breanna, and one grandson, Walker John.

A proven program builder, Amy Williams enters her eighth season at Nebraska after leading the Huskers to postseason eligibility for the fourth consecutive season in 2023.

A year after running to the 2022 NCAA Tournament with a 24-9 record and a No. 23 NET ranking while advancing to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals, the Huskers overcame multiple season-ending injuries to starting guards to advance to the WNIT Super 16 and finish with an 18-15 overall record.

First-team All-Big Ten guard Jaz Shelley and second-team All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski joined honorable-mention All-Big Ten forward Isabelle Bourne in carrying NU back to the postseason despite injuries to starting guards Allison Weidner and Sam Haiby.

In addition to individual honors for Husker players, Nebraska's 2022-23 season was highlighted by its first win over Maryland - a 90-67 victory over the No. 20 Terrapins in College Park on Dec. 4, 2022. Just over two weeks later, the Huskers added an 85-79 triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas in Lincoln. However that win was dampered by the season-ending injury to Weidner early in the fourth quarter that changed the course of NU's season.

The Huskers added a Pinnacle Bank Arena attendance record of 14,289 on Feb. 18, which helped them finish No. 13 nationally in average home attendance with 5,761 fans per game.

Nebraska added a third win over a top-25 opponent with a 90-57 sprint past No. 25 Illinois in Champaign on Feb. 22.

In 2021-22, the Huskers put one of the most complete teams in school history on the floor, ranking 10th nationally in scoring (77.8 ppg), 13th in assists (17.4 apg), 18th in scoring margin (+13.5 ppg), while leading the Big Ten, setting a school record and ranking 21st nationally in three-pointers made per game (8.5). NU also led the Big Ten and ranked 23rd in the nation in rebounding (41.8 rpg), while leading the Big Ten in field goal percentage defense (.385).

Nebraska fans also showed up in droves to watch their beloved Big Red despite continued challenges caused by the COVID pandemic, as the Huskers ranked 14th nationally in total home attendance (76,317) and 18th nationally in average home attendance (4,489) in 2021-22.

The Husker faithful went home happy night after night from Pinnacle Bank Arena, as Nebraska tied a school record with 16 home victories, including a trio of home wins over 2022 NCAA Sweet Sixteen qualifiers (Indiana, Michigan, Creighton). Overall, Nebraska notched four wins on the year against Sweet Sixteen teams, including a victory over Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals.

Nebraska's three wins over top-10 teams (No. 8 Michigan, 79-58, Jan. 4; No. 5 Indiana, 72-55, Feb. 14; No. 10 Michigan, 76-73, March 4) marked just the second time in school history the Big Red posted multiple wins over top-10 teams in the same season. Nebraska's 21-point home win over the Wolverines matched the largest victory margin in NU history over a top-10 foe, while the 17-point win over the Hoosiers marked Nebraska's largest margin ever against a top-five opponent.

Four Huskers earned All-Big Ten honors in 2021-22, led by newcomers Shelley (Second Team/All-Defensive) and Markowski (Second Team/Big Ten Freshman of the Year) and captains Haiby and Bourne, who both claimed honorable-mention accolades.

Nebraska, which continues to feature a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate in women's basketball, also set a program record with nine Academic All-Big Ten selections in 2021-22.

Williams, who proved herself as a winner and a program builder in her first nine seasons as a collegiate head coach, returned to her alma mater to lead a new stage in the Husker program when she was hired as Nebraska's head coach on April 11, 2016.

In her second season with the Big Red, Williams showed she could get a program moving forward in a hurry. Williams captured 2018 Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors after leading the nation's biggest turnaround. The Huskers earned a bid into the 2018 NCAA Tournament and finished with a 21-11 record - a nation-leading 14-game turnaround in the win column over 2016-17.

Nebraska was plus-eight in the win column in Big Ten play, finishing with an 11-5 mark and claiming the No. 3 seed in the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers then knocked off No. 24 Michigan in the league tournament quarterfinals to advance to the conference semifinals for the first time since 2014.

Defensively, Nebraska led the Big Ten with a school-record field goal percentage defense (.371) while also leading the conference in three-point field goal percentage defense (.299). The Huskers improved 12.7 points per game defensively over the 2016-17 campaign and were six points per game better on the offensive end.

In 2019-20, Williams led the Huskers back to postseason eligibility with a 17-13 overall record before the season abruptly ended because of the COVID-19 outbreak. Nebraska's 17 wins represented a three-game improvement in the win column, despite facing a Big Ten Conference that produced its strongest collection of teams in a decade. The Big Ten was poised to send eight teams to the NCAA Tournament and several more to the WNIT, as 11 teams finished in the top 64 in the Massey Ratings.

Nebraska revamped its roster and continued to battle the best teams in the Big Ten, notching five victories over top-25 Big Ten teams in an abbreviated 2020-21 season. The Huskers were anchored inside by Kate Cain. The 6-5 center was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten performer as a senior in 2020-21. Nebraska's career leader in blocked shots (352), Cain also claimed her third appearance on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team. She was a three-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate and one of 15 finalists for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year award.

Cain, who completed her fourth season on the court at Nebraska following her early graduation in the summer of 2020, signed a free agent training camp contract with the WNBA's Las Vegas Aces in 2021 before starting her professional career overseas in 2021-22.

Haiby and Bourne joined Cain in collecting All-Big Ten honors in 2020-21. Nebraska's MVP, Haiby captured second-team All-Big Ten accolades as the only player to rank among the conference's top 15 in scoring (11th, 16.8 ppg), rebounding (15th, 6.8 rpg) and assists (8th, 4.4 apg). Haiby's game-winning putback at the buzzer against Northwestern was named ESPN SportsCenter's Top Play on New Year's Eve, giving Nebraska one of its five wins on the year against top-25 opponents.

Bourne, a 6-2 forward from Canberra, Australia, also produced a breakout season for the Big Red by earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition. Bourne averaged 13.6 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists while proving herself as one of the most versatile players in the Big Ten.

Williams was a four-year letterwinner (Amy Gusso, 1995-96-97-98) at Nebraska, playing for coaches Angela Beck and Paul Sanderford before embarking on a career in coaching. The academic All-Big 12 honoree earned her bachelor's degree from Nebraska as a biology and mathematics major in 1998, before earning her master's degree in sports administration from Nebraska-Kearney in 2002.

Williams spent four successful seasons (2013-16) as the head coach at South Dakota, where she led the Coyotes to four straight postseason appearances. She led USD to a 32-6 record that culminated with a WNIT Championship in 2015-16. The Coyotes won the Summit League regular-season title with a 15-1 mark, and she was named the Summit League Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season.

Her gritty pack of Coyotes posted a Division I school-record 32 wins (32-3), surpassing the 26 her Yotes totaled in 2014-15, when she won her first Summit League Coach-of-the-Year award. Over Williams' final two seasons at USD, her teams went 58-14 (.806), including 28-4 in the Summit League with a pair of regular-season conference crowns.

OUTLOOK (2023-24)

Maddie Krull returns for her second season as a Husker and fourth year of college basketball in 2023-24. The 5-9 guard from Omaha joins Alexis Markowski and Allison Weidner as Nebraska natives on the NU roster.

In her first season as a Husker, Krull averaged 6.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 1.8 assists while starting 24 games. She averaged 7.5 points and 2.5 boards in Big Ten play.

During Nebraska's three-game summer tour of Greece in early August, Krull averaged 5.0 points, 2.0 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 2.0 steals.

Krull will look to be a major contributor in a talented and experienced Nebraska backcourt again in 2023-24, after earning her bachelor's degree from Nebraska in August of 2023.

JUNIOR (NEBRASKA, 2022-23)

Krull started 24 of Nebraska's final 25 games and helped the Huskers advance to the Postseason WNIT Super 16. She averaged 6.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 1.8 assists in her first season as a Husker, joining the starting lineup for the first time in Nebraska's first-ever win at No. 20 Maryland (Dec. 4) after Trinity Brady was lost for the season to an injury at No. 9 Virginia Tech (Dec. 1). Krull remained in the starting five throughout the season following a triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21) that included a season-ending injury to starting guard Allison Weidner.

Krull provided a stabilizing presence throughout the season that allowed the Huskers to overcome injuries in the backcourt to Brady, Weidner and fifth-year starter Sam Haiby.

Krull opened her Husker career with 18 points, including a career-high-tying four three-pointers, in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7). She hit 7-of-9 shots overall and added two assists in her first college game as a non-starter. She produced her second-highest scoring total of the year with 15 points in a win at Purdue (Jan. 18), when she came off the bench (illness) for the only time in the final 25 games. Krull's three-pointer with 2:47 left helped seal Nebraska's come-from-behind road win.

She put up 14 points on 3-of-5 three-point shooting in Nebraska's run past Penn State (Jan. 11), before adding an impressive effort with 11 points on 5-of-9 shooting in Nebraska's 33-point win at No. 25 Illinois (Feb. 22). It marked NU's largest road victory margin in history over an AP Top 25 opponent. She had 13 points, a season-high five rebounds and three assists at Minnesota (Feb. 15). Krull produced double figures for the first time in Big Ten play with 11 points, a season-high five rebounds and a career-high-tying three steals at Rutgers (Jan. 7).

Krull finished the season with eight double-figure scoring efforts, including 10 points in Nebraska's second-round WNIT win over Northern Iowa (March 19).

Krull started all 35 games for a South Dakota team that advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. For the season, Krull averaged 6.8 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.3 steals in 31.5 minutes per game.

She added six points, seven rebounds, two assists and three steals to help the Coyotes to a 61-47 upset of No. 7 Baylor (March 20) to propel them to the Sweet Sixteen.

For the season, Krull scored in double figures 10 times, including her first career double-double with 12 points and a career-high 11 rebounds in an overtime win over Pittsburgh (Nov. 27) at the Paradise Jam in the Virgin Islands.

She put up a season-high 16 points to go along with four assists, two rebounds and a career-high two blocked shots in a 73-71 win at Creighton (Dec. 16). Krull also knocked down a career-best four three-pointers on just five attempts against the eventual NCAA Elite Eight-qualifying Jays.

She closed her USD career with five points, seven rebounds and an assist in a low-scoring 52-49 loss to No. 12 Michigan in Wichita (March 26).

Off the court, Krull earned a spot on the Summit League Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence, which recognizes student-athletes for having a 3.5 GPA or better in at least their third academic semester. She also claimed her second spot on the Summit League Academic Honor Roll.

A member of the Summit League All-Newcomer Team as a true freshman at South Dakota, Krull helped the Coyotes win the Summit League Tournament title and advance to the 2021 NCAA Tournament.

One of five Coyotes to play in all 25 games, she became the first freshman starter at USD since 2016. Along the way, she ranked fourth on the team by averaging 9.2 points per game, while adding 3.8 rebounds and 2.4 assists per game.

She scored in double figures 13 times, including her first career 20-point game with 20 points in a win over North Dakota State (Feb. 27). She also put up 15 points on three other occasions during Summit League action.

OUTLOOK (2023-24)

Alexis Markowski will contend for All-Big Ten honors as one of the nation's top centers in 2023-24. The 6-3 junior from Lincoln is expected to be a Lisa Leslie Award contender after leading all Big Ten post players with 15 double-doubles a year ago.

Markowski was the only Big Ten player to average a double-double (12.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg) during regular-season conference action last season and could be looking to provide an even bigger presence inside for Nebraska this season with the graduation of three-year starting power forward Isabelle Bourne.

During Nebraska's three-game summer tour of Greece in early August, Markowski averaged 18.0 points and 16.0 rebounds.

Markowski enjoyed a solid season as one of the top posts in the nation in 2022-23. She was one of 10 midseason contenders for the Lisa Leslie Award in 2023. She was also a member of the Naismith Trophy Watch List.

Markowski captured second-team All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season, playing in the same conference with Lisa Leslie finalists Mackenzie Holmes (Indiana) and Monika Czinano (Iowa, 2). Markowski, who was the only non-senior/graduate student among the 10 Leslie Award finalists, also went head-to-head against three more of the other seven finalists - Elizabeth Kitley (Virginia Tech), Jessika Carter (Mississippi State) and Taiyanna Jackson (Kansas, 2) - during the year. Overall, Markowski played seven games against the top 10 centers in the country.

Markowski finished the season by averaging 11.9 points and a Big Ten-best 9.8 rebounds, while leading Nebraska and tying for seventh in the conference with 31 blocks. She scored in double figures 23 times in 33 games, while adding 19 double-digit rebound performances.

The only Big Ten player to average a double-double (12.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg) during the regular season, Markowski finished with 15 double-doubles on the year, trailing only national player of the year Caitlin Clark among Big Ten players in double-doubles. Markowski's double-double total tied for third on Nebraska's single-season list behind only All-American Kelsey Griffin (20, 2009-10) and Nafeesah Brown (16, 1993-94).

Markowski also led the Big Ten with 322 total rebounds overall, matching Kendall Bostic from Illinois with 9.8 rebounds per game to lead the conference. Markowski's 322 rebounds marked the fifth-highest single-season total in Nebraska history.

She erupted for a season-high 24 points and a career-high 18 rebounds in a win over Tarleton (Nov. 22). She also tied a career best with three blocks against the Texans. It followed a 21-point effort at Drake (Nov. 19), which came on the heels of her first double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds at No. 20 Creighton (Nov. 15).

Markowski finished the regular strong with nine double-doubles over the final 14 games, producing 12 games with double-figure points and 11 games with double-digit rebounds during that stretch. She entered the Postseason WNIT after getting 12 points and 13 rebounds against Michigan State in the Big Ten Tournament (March 2). Those games capped a string of five straight double-doubles that began with 12 points and 11 boards at No. 10 Iowa (Jan. 28). Markowski followed with 11 points and 13 rebounds in a win over Michigan State (Feb. 2), before getting 11 points and 10 rebounds in a road win at Northwestern (Feb. 6).

Markowski had 19 points and 10 rebounds in a win at Purdue (Jan. 18), including 11 points and six rebounds in the fourth quarter to fuel a rally from a nine-point third-quarter deficit on the road. She added a Big Ten double-double with 11 points and 15 rebounds in a win over Penn State (Jan. 11). She finished the season with nine double-doubles against Big Ten foes.

Markowski notched her third consecutive double-double with 18 points and a team-high 10 rebounds in Nebraska's 3OT win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). She added three assists, two blocks and two steals against the Jayhawks. Her performance in the win over Kansas followed a double-double with 22 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks in a win over Wyoming (Dec. 18) to earn the first Big Ten Player-of-the-Week award of her career (Dec. 19). Her double-double against Wyoming came on the heels of a 16-point, 15-rebound effort in a win over Samford (Dec. 10).

Markowski nearly doubled her assist total (35-18) from 2021-22 and led the Huskers with 31 blocked shots on the year.

OUTLOOK (2023-24)

Kendall Moriarty enters her junior season hoping to continue to make a greater impact on Nebraska's lineup.

The 6-1 junior guard from Wheaton, Ill., averaged 3.4 points and 1.6 rebounds while playing in all 33 games a year ago. She made her first career start in Nebraska's WNIT Super 16 game at Kansas (March 23, 2023), when she scored 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting.

Moriarty's size and versatility could make her an asset in Nebraska's ability to create matchup challenges for opponents.

During Nebraska's three-game summer tour of Greece in early August, Moriarty averaged 9.0 points, 3.3 rebounds and 3.3 assists.

"Kendall was our first commit in the 2021 class, and she fits perfectly into all aspects of our program," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She is a long, tough, gritty player with great versatility. She is a talented scorer, but her willingness to do all the dirty work on the court is what separates her. She is a great teammate and will lay it on the line for her team to win."

Moriarty played a greater role for the Huskers in her second season, more than doubling her points (111-45), knocking down more than six times as many threes (19-3), snagging more than seven times the steals (22-3) and grabbing more than four times the rebounds (54-12) in 2022-23 than she did as a freshman.

She played in all 33 of Nebraska's games as a sophomore, making her first career start in Nebraska's WNIT Super 16 appearance at Kansas (March 23). Moriarty produced the second double-digit scoring performance of her career with 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including a pair of threes, against the eventual WNIT champion Jayhawks at Allen Fieldhouse. She added two steals while playing a career-high 28 minutes.

Moriarty ended her sophomore season by averaging 3.4 points and 1.6 rebounds, while adding 27 total assists and 22 steals on the season.

She produced the best week of her career by averaging 10.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 24 minutes per game off the bench in wins over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) and Samford (Dec. 10). She hit 5-of-8 threes in the two games, including a career-best 3-for-3 from beyond the arc in the second half to finish with a career-high 11 points in the win over Samford. It followed a then-career-high nine points in the win over Wisconsin.

Moriarty added eight big points off the bench in Nebraska's road rally to a 71-64 win at Purdue (Jan. 18). She also scored eight big points while adding a career-high five rebounds in NU's overtime win over eventual NCAA Tournament qualifier Mississippi State in Puerto Rico (Nov. 26). She also had eight points in Nebraska's win over Tarleton (Nov. 22) helping ease the loss of starter Allison Weidner, who suffered an eye injury in the game's opening minute and was not able to return.

Moriarty also provided one of the most memorable moments of the 2022-23 season for the Huskers when she drained an unlikely, running half-a-hook shot from beyond half court on a baseline inbounds play as the shot clock expired in the closing seconds of Nebraska's win over Penn State (Jan. 11). The shot provided Moriarty with her only points of the night, while earning recognition as Scott Van Pelt's "Best Thing I Saw Today" on ESPN.

Moriarty's efforts helped Nebraska overcome the absences of starters Isabelle Bourne, Sam Haiby, Trinity Brady and Weidner at different points in 2022-23. In three Postseason WNIT games, Moriarty averaged 6.7 points, 1.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals, while hitting 8-of-11 field goal attempts, including 4-of-7 three-point tries.

Moriarty competed in 30 of Nebraska's 33 games as a true freshman, averaging 1.5 points and shooting 48.8 percent (20-41) from the field in 2021-22.

She matched her season high with six points on 3-of-3 shooting from the field in Nebraska's 77-44 win over Wisconsin (Jan. 27). She added two rebounds, an assist and a steal in 12 minutes against the Badgers.

Her performance against Wisconsin followed five points and a career-high four assists in a career-high 20 minutes at Iowa (Jan. 16), when the Huskers played without starting guards Jaz Shelley (COVID protocols) and Sam Haiby (injury). She also had five points and a steal in a win over Minnesota (Feb. 20), and she scored five points with an assist in a win over Alabama A&M (Nov. 14).

Moriarty established her career highs with six points and two rebounds in a win over North Carolina Central (Nov. 20). She hit her first career three-pointer in NU's win over Creighton (Nov. 17), before adding three-pointers against

Allison Weidner (pronounced WIDE-ner) joins fellow junior Alexis Markowski and graduate student Maddie Krull as native Nebraskans on the Husker roster in 2023-24.

Weidner, a 5-10 guard from the small town of Humphrey (pop. 832) in Northeast Nebraska, was producing a breakout season as a sophomore before suffering a season-ending knee injury in NU's final non-conference game against Kansas (Dec. 21).

Weidner's recovery and rehab after surgery has gone well, and she enters 2023-24 projected to be a major contributor in an experienced Husker backcourt.

Through 13 games as a starter in 2022-23, Weidner averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists. In two Big Ten wins over Maryland and Wisconsin, she averaged 13.0 points, 10.0 boards and 6.0 assists.

In 10 career Big Ten starts as a freshman (8) and sophomore (2), Weidner has helped Nebraska to a 7-3 record including a pair of wins over top-20 teams (No. 10 Michigan, No. 20 Maryland) away from Pinnacle Bank Arena. In those 10 starts, Weidner has averaged 10.8 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.6 assists.

Weidner showed major improvements to her all-around game while taking on a greater leadership role in her second season. She averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting each of Nebraska's first 13 games of 2022-23. She scored in double figures in four consecutive games before suffering a season-ending leg injury early in the fourth quarter of NU's triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). She underwent successful surgery on Jan. 10, 2023.

Weidner had 13 points, seven rebounds and three assists in a win over Wyoming (Dec. 18). It followed her second double-double of the season with 15 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high five steals in a win over Samford (Dec. 10).

She notched her first career double-double with 13 points and a career-high 15 rebounds in Nebraska's upset of No. 20 Maryland in College Park (Dec. 4). Weidner, who added five assists against the Terps, scored all 13 of her points and grabbed eight of her rebounds in the second half alone, as NU outscored Maryland 59-31 in the second half. Weidner's effort helped the Huskers secure their first-ever win over Maryland, which went on to advance to the NCAA Elite Eight.

Weidner added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists in an 82-54 win over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) to help the Huskers improve to 2-0 in Big Ten play despite the absence of starters Isabelle Bourne, Trinity Brady and Sam Haiby - who all missed the game with injuries.

Weidner opened the season with 19 points and a then-career-high nine rebounds in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7). She made a career-high nine field goals in just 11 attempts against the Mavs. She added her second career 20-point performance with 20 points and seven boards in a win over Houston Christian (Nov. 11).

She was injured on an offensive rebound on the first possession of the game against Tarleton (Nov. 22), but still finished the play with a bucket in the opening minute before she left the court. Weidner, who played 59 seconds, did not return to the game after suffering an eye injury. She did return to the starting lineup three days later in NU's win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi at the Puerto Rico Clasico (Nov. 25). She had 13 points and five rebounds against the Islanders.

Weidner joined Alexis Markowski as freshman starters in Nebraska's lineup down the stretch in 2021-22. Weidner averaged 7.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.2 assists while playing in all 33 games for the 24-9 Huskers in 2021-22.

She moved into Nebraska's starting five for the final eight games of the season and started nine contests overall for the Huskers, who finished No. 23 in the NET rankings and advanced to the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

She produced the most memorable performance of her young career with a team-high 16 points, including two free throws with 5.5 seconds left to seal Nebraska's 76-73 victory over No. 10 Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals in Indianapolis (March 4). Weidner added three rebounds, two assists and two steals against the Wolverines to give Nebraska two wins over the eventual 2022 NCAA Elite Eight qualifiers.

Weidner put together her best game with a career-high 23 points and a career-best three threes in a 93-70 win over Minnesota (Feb. 20). She hit 8-of-10 shots from the field, including all three of her long-range attempts, while also going 4-for-4 from the free throw line against the Gophers. She added five rebounds.

She scored in double figures seven times on the season, including 11 points, eight rebounds and five assists in just 18 minutes off the bench in a win over Prairie View A&M (Nov. 11). She scored all 14 points in the first half against the Boilermakers.

Weidner matched that performance with 14 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals in a win over Penn State (Feb. 3). Weidner also had 11 points, four rebounds, two assists and a steal in Nebraska's 72-55 run past No. 5 Indiana (Feb. 14). She hit 5-of-7 shots from the field, including her lone three-point attempt, to help the Huskers to their largest victory margin ever against a top-five team. The win over Indiana marked Weidner's last game off the bench in 2021-22.

In nine starts on the season, Weidner averaged 9.3 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. She made her first career start in place of an injured Sam Haiby at Iowa (Jan. 16), in a game the Huskers also played without starting guard Jaz Shelley (COVID protocols). Weidner finished with eight points, three rebounds, five assists and a block against the Hawkeyes.

Weidner made a solid debut with nine points in a win over Maine (Nov. 9) and threatened a triple-double with eight points, eight rebounds and eight assists in just 18 minutes off the bench in a win over North Carolina Central (Nov. 20). Her eight rebounds and eight assists were both season highs.

"I love that she is committed to playing hard on both ends of the court. Not only is Callin the perfect fit for us on the court, but she fits our family. Hake scored six points on a pair of threes in wins over Houston Christian (Nov. 11) and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi (Nov. 25). She opened her career with three points, three rebounds, an assist and a steal in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7). She also knocked down a three-pointer at No. 20 Creighton (Nov. 15).

The 6-2 forward from O'Fallon, Mo., led Incarnate Word Academy to three consecutive Missouri state championships (no 2020 state tournament because of COVID-19) and a nation's best 100-game winning streak to close her prep career. She led the Red Knights to a 117-4 record during her four high school seasons, including a 32-0 mark in Class 6, as Incarnate Word finished No. 6 nationally by MaxPreps and No. 10 in the final ESPN SCNext national rankings in 2022-23.

Potts captured Missouri MaxPreps Player of the Year honors in both 2021 and 2023, while adding a Gatorade Player of the Year award as a sophomore in 2021. She was also the St. Louis Post-Dispatch Metro Player of the Year in both 2021 and 2023.

Potts closed her high school career with 2,108 points and 1,008 rebounds in four seasons - just the third player in Missouri high school history to reach the combined milestones of 1,000 points and 1,000 boards.

"We are so excited to add Natalie to our Husker women's basketball family," Williams said. "She is a great fit for us both on and off the basketball court. She has an incredible motor, and her competitive spirit matches the values we have for our team. She is versatile and a proven winner from one of the most successful high school programs in the country. We can't wait to see her thrive in a Husker uniform."

During Nebraska's three-game summer tour of Greece in early August, Potts averaged 11.7 points, 7.3 rebounds, 2.3 assists and a team-best 3.7 steals.

HIGH SCHOOL

Potts averaged 18.7 points, 7.4 rebounds and 2.9 assists per game as a senior for Incarnate Word Academy in Bel Nor, Mo., which won its sixth consecutive Missouri state championship. She capped her career with a 32-0 record, a third straight Class 6 state title and a No. 6 final national ranking from MaxPreps.

She produced 19.3 points, 8.6 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.5 blocks per game while hitting 61.9 percent of her shots from the floor as a junior to lead Missouri Hall of Fame Head Coach Dan Rolfes' team to a 32-0 record, another Class 6 state championship and recognition as the Blue Star Media 25 national champion in 2021-22.

Potts averaged 20.7 points and 9.3 rebounds as a sophomore to earn Gatorade and MaxPreps Missouri Player-of-the-Year honors after leading Incarnate Word Academy to a Class 6 state championship in 2021. She was also the St. Louis Metro Area Player of the Year. Incarnate Word Academy finished No. 20 in the final espnW national rankings with a perfect 29-0 record.

She also broke the Incarnate Word Academy single-game scoring record with 40 points on 19-of-21 shooting in a win over Ladue on Feb. 3, 2021. The previous record was held by two-time UConn first-team All-American Napheesa Collier. Potts finished her career with four 30-point games and 36 career double-doubles.

Potts opened her high school career with averages of 10.1 points and 8.3 rebounds as a freshman in 2019-20.

Potts, who played AAU basketball for Phee Elite, was ranked as the No. 1 recruit in the state of Missouri by Prep Girls Hoops.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Eric and Sharon Potts, Natalie was born Nov. 7, 2004, in St. Louis, Mo. She has an older brother, Kyle, and a sister, Sarah. Natalie is majoring in business administration at Nebraska. She selected Nebraska over Gonzaga.

"I chose Nebraska because I loved the community and the family feel. Everything about the campus and the town was what I wanted," Potts said. "The coaching staff and the team are just super sweet and welcoming and just a good group of people to be around."

SEASON REVIEW

BIG RED MAKE ANOTHER POSTSEASON RUN

Jaz Shelley (#1), Sam Haiby (#4) and Isabelle Bourne (#34) celebrated Senior Day at Nebraska with an 80-64 victory over Northwestern in front of 6,232 fans at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 26). It was one of five home crowds of more than 6,000 for the Huskers in 2022-23.

Four Huskers earned All-Big Ten recognition for the second consecutive season to lead Nebraska to a third consecutive postseason berth in 2023.

Jaz Shelley led the way for Nebraska, claiming first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Alexis Markowski contributed second-team accolades.

Isabelle Bourne and Sam Haiby both concluded their careers as three-time All-Big Ten honorees, while leading the Huskers to the Postseason WNIT Super 16.

While the Big Red had high hopes for a return trip to the NCAA Tournament, the 2022-23 season was impacted by injuries to multiple starters throughout the preseason, regular season and postseason.

Although Nebraska's 2022-23 campaign had its ups and downs, Husker fans supported the Big Red in a big way from start to finish.

Nebraska finished No. 13 nationally in average home attendance with 5,761 fans per game - an increase of nearly 1,300 fans per contest from 2021-22, when the Huskers also ranked among the top 15 in the country.

Nebraska's preseason preparation in the summer of 2022 was affected by the recovery of Sam Haiby from offseason shoulder surgery.

Haiby's surgery and recovery went well and she returned to full strength as the Huskers returned to class and workouts for the fall semester. However, in early September, Haiby suffered a knee injury that was originally thought to be season ending.

Haiby, who finished her career as the only player in Nebraska history to produce 1,000 points (1,618), 500 rebounds (642) and 400 assists (477), had surgery in October but her injury was not as severe as originally expected and the door opened for her return. However, the regular season was quickly approaching. She ended up missing 11 of Nebraska's first 12 games to begin the year.

In Haiby's place, senior Trinity Brady earned a starting assignment. Brady, who had been slowed by injury for much of the first three years of her Husker career, started Nebraska's first seven games. She helped the Big Red to a 5-2 record that included a 73-65 overtime win over eventual NCAA qualifier Mississippi State in Puerto Rico on Nov. 26.

Brady made her eighth start against No. 9 and eventual ACC Champion and NCAA No. 1 seed Virginia Tech on Dec. 1. Midway through the first half, Brady was struck by a thrown elbow while defending a Hokie near the free throw line. The hit caused a concussion and the end of Brady's Husker career.

Nebraska dropped to 5-3 on the year and was down two starting guards in Haiby and Brady, heading to No. 20 Maryland - a place the Huskers had never won - to open Big Ten Conference regular-season play.

Maddie Krull, a first-year transfer from Omaha, Neb., who helped South Dakota to a pair of NCAA Tournament bids in 2021 and 2022, made her first Nebraska start against the Terps.

Shelley, Bourne, Markowski and Allison Weidner all provided huge performances to lead Nebraska to victory.

Shelley went off for 22 of her game-high 29 points in an 11-minute span from the final minute of the first half through the end of the third quarter to turn an 11-point deficit into a 60-56 lead heading to the final period.

Bourne added 18 points, six rebounds and four assists. She hit a career-best four threes, including a pair in the decisive fourth quarter when Nebraska overwhelmed the Terps, 30-11.

Weidner added 13 points and 15 rebounds in the game for her first career double-double. She scored all of her points in the second half, while pulling down eight second-half boards. She also had five assists in the game.

Markowski pitched in 14 points and six rebounds, including seven points early in the fourth quarter to help push Nebraska's lead to double digits.

Nebraska's win over the Terps, which at the time was its largest margin of victory in school history against a top 25 team on the road, sparked a five-game winning streak that moved the Huskers to 10-3 on the season.

The winning streak included an 82-54 pounding of Wisconsin (Dec. 7) to help the Huskers move to 2-0 in the Big Ten, as Shelley went off for 31 points on 7-of-12 three-point shooting against the Badgers.

The Huskers added a 25-point win over Samford (Dec. 10) and a 27-point win over eventual Mountain West runner-up Wyoming (Dec. 18). Markowski was outstanding in both wins, including a 22-point, 10-rebound effort in the victory over the Cowgirls, after going for 16 points and 15 boards against the Bulldogs.

Weidner added 13 points and seven boards against Wyoming, while Haiby returned to the court for eight minutes.

The Huskers also got their first look at true freshman Maggie Mendelson, who joined the active roster at the conclusion of Nebraska's volleyball season. The 6-5 center from Ogden, Utah, had nine points, three rebounds and three blocks in just 10 minutes in her debut.

With Nebraska seemingly ready to start firing on all cylinders for the first time, the Huskers welcomed unbeaten and No. 20 Kansas to Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Shelley led Nebraska with 24 points, six rebounds and six assists, while Markowski added a double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds to fuel an 85-79 triple-overtime victory over the Jayhawks. Haiby came up huge down the stretch with 12 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals in her most significant playing time (26 minutes) to that point in the season.

FOUR HUSKERS EARN ALL-BIG TEN HONORS

Haiby's minutes came in the fourth quarter and overtime, as Weidner went down with a season-ending knee injury early in the fourth while trying to block a Chandler Prater fastbreak layup.

While Nebraska's win was its second in 17 days over an AP Top 20 team, it dealt the Husker backcourt a significant blow.

Weidner averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists through 13 games as a starter. She was also shooting a team-best 54.1 percent from the field, including 36.4 percent from three-point range and had been to the free throw line more than any other Husker.

Although Haiby had returned, she was far from 100 percent and with the full Big Ten schedule looming, Nebraska ventured into league play at less than full strength.

A week later, No. 14 Michigan knocked off the Huskers 76-59 to close Nebraska's five-game home stand.

On New Year's Day, the Big Red fought hard, forcing No. 4 Indiana to overtime in Bloomington before falling 74-62.

Nebraska then dropped its third straight with a 57-45 loss at Rutgers (Jan. 7), as the Huskers struggled to their worst offensive performance of the season.

The Huskers responded with an 80-51 pounding of Penn State at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Jan. 11). Freshman Callin Hake poured in a career-high 16 points on 4-of-6 three-point shooting off the bench to spark the Huskers. Hake led five Huskers in double figures that included 14 points from Krull and a double-double with 11 points and 15 rebounds from Markowski.

Shelley added a double-double of her own with 10 points, 10 assists and eight rebounds, while Bourne pitched in 10 points to pull the Huskers back to .500 (3-3) in the Big Ten.

The Big Red came up short in a 76-67 loss to No. 3 Ohio State (Jan. 14), before moving back to .500 in the conference with an impressive 71-64 win at Purdue (Jan. 18). Markowski led the Huskers with 19 points and 10 rebounds, while Krull added 15 points off the bench despite battling an illness. Haiby also contributed 14 big points against the Boilermakers.

The Huskers dropped back-to-back games against No. 11 Maryland and at No. 10 Iowa (80-76), before posting back-to-back wins over Michigan State and Northwestern to move to 6-6 in the league.

But a string of four straight losses, including a five-point road setback at No. 12 Michigan, a three-point road loss at Minnesota and a loss to No. 7 Iowa in front of a Nebraska record crowd of 14,289 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in Lincoln locked in a losing conference record for the Big Ten on the season.

Despite the setbacks, Nebraska's daunting strength of schedule still had them in a hunt for an NCAA Tournament berth.

The Huskers closed Big Ten play with a massive 90-57 win at No. 25 Illinois. Shelley led five Huskers in double figures by scoring 26 points to go with five rebounds and six assists while burying 6-of-11 three-pointers.

Bourne added a double-double with 16 points and 13 rebounds, while Haiby (12), Krull (11) and Markowski (11) all finished in double figures. The 33-point margin of victory over the NCAA Tournament-bound Illini was the largest in Husker history against an AP Top 25 team on the road.

Nebraska capped the regular season with an 80-64 victory over Northwestern on Senior Day for Bourne and Haiby at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Shelley joined her roommates in being honored on Senior Day and put up a big double-double with 19 points, a season-high 13 rebounds and six assists. Haiby (13) and Bourne (11) both contributed double-digit points, while Markowski came off the bench for the only time all season and produced a double-double with 16 points and 14 boards in just 25 minutes.

The Huskers headed to the Big Ten Tournament in Minneapolis with momentum in need of a win over Michigan State to keep their NCAA Tournament hopes alive.

In a hard-fought game from start to finish, Nebraska came up just short in a 67-64 setback to the Spartans. Shelley led the Huskers with a game-high 24 points on 5-of-10 three-point shooting, and Markowski contributed her 15th double-double of the year with 12 points, 13 rebounds and a career-high-tying four assists.

The loss ended Nebraska's NCAA Tournament hopes, but the Huskers earned a bid to host the first round of the Postseason WNIT against perennial Missouri Valley Conference power Missouri State. Haiby made the most of the opportunity to play another game at Pinnacle Bank Arena by erupting for a season-high 25 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field and an 11-for-13 effort at the free throw line.

Sam Haiby battled multiple injuries before capping her fifth season at Nebraska with a 25-point effort in a win over Missouri State. Haiby was a three-time All-Big Ten honoree for the Huskers.

Bourne added a big double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds, while Shelley contributed 11 points and six assists in Nebraska's 74-65 victory over the Lady Bears in front of more than 4,000 fans.

The win over Missouri State marked Nebraska's first postseason home win at PBA, and it didn't take the Big Red long to add another W to the win column. Playing in front of a raucous crowd of 6,478 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in the WNIT second round, Nebraska ousted another Missouri Valley Conference power with a 77-57 pounding of Northern Iowa on March 19.

Bourne came up big again with 17 points and 11 rebounds, while Shelley provided a strong all-around game with 16 points, eight rebounds, seven assists and three steals.

Markowski contributed double digits with 11 points in just 19 minutes, while Krull put four Huskers in double figures with 10 points.

As a team, Nebraska knocked down 10 three-pointers to help overcome the loss of Haiby to a lower leg injury in the first half.

After averaging more than 5,200 fans for its first two rounds at home in the WNIT, the Huskers were hopeful of getting a third straight game at Pinnacle Bank Arena for a rematch with Kansas.

However, since the Jayhawks were the higher seed in the tournament, they were awarded the Super 16 showdown at Allen Fieldhouse on March 23.

In another hard-fought battle, Kansas came out on top with 64-55 win. The Huskers were limited by the loss of Haiby, but Kendall Moriarty put up double figures with 10 points and a pair of three-pointers in her first collegiate start.

Bourne capped her college career with a 17-point performance that included six rebounds and a trio of steals, while Shelley closed her season with 12 points, nine assists, five rebounds and three steals. The Huskers hit just 6-of-26 threes against the Jayhawks and converted just 3-of-9 free throws.

KU hit just 4-of-24 threes and made just 6-of-9 free throws, but 16 points and 12 rebounds from Taiyanna Jackson and 14 points and 16 boards from Chandler Prater proved to be enough for the beaks in blue. Kansas went on to win the WNIT Championship.

Following the season, Bourne chose to forego a potential fifth season at Nebraska and signed a professional contract in Australia's WNBL. However, Shelley elected to return to Nebraska for her third season as a Husker and fifth year overall in college basketball.

While the Huskers will miss Bourne, Haiby and Brady, Nebraska returns a strong nucleus for 2023-24 with Shelley, Markowski, Weidner, Krull, Moriarty, Annika Stewart, Kendall Coley, Callin Hake and Maggie Mendelson. The Big Red also welcome transfer Darian White (Montana State) along with freshmen Logan Nissley, Jessica Petrie and Natalie Potts.

Markowski erupted for 24 points and a career-high 18 rebounds for her second double-double of the year, while Bourne contributed 14 points and 10 boards. NU's starting duo led the way for Nebraska to outscore Tarleton 50-14 in the paint, while producing a 53-26 margin on the glass. The game did not lack drama, as starting guard Allison Weidner left after just one minute when she was hit in the left eye on an offensive rebound. She finished the shot for the first two points of the game but did not return to the court. Sam Haiby, who missed the first four games of the season while recovering from a leg injury, played six minutes off the bench. She left the court with five minutes left in the third quarter. Nebraska built an 18-point lead at that point, but Tarleton cut the margin to 48-43 at the end of three periods. Markowski dominated the second half with 16 points and 10 rebounds to fuel NU's 18-point win.

Game Highlights: Annika Stewart erupted for career highs of 23 points and eight rebounds to help Nebraska overcome a slow start in a 73-44 win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi at the Puerto Rico Clasico at Roberto Clemente Coliseum. Allison Weidner returned to action with red goggles in place after suffering an eye injury in the opening minute of NU's previous win over Tarleton. The goggles were good luck, as Weidner scored Nebraska's first two points and 10 in a big first half. Weidner, who went 5-for-6 from the field, was the only gun firing early for the Huskers until Stewart got going midway through the first quarter. Stewart finished with 13 in the half, including eight during a 17-2 NU surge that flipped a 12-5 deficit into a 22-14 lead. Alexis Markowski added her third double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds, while Jaz Shelley pitched in 11 points and five assists. Shelley scored eight in NU's 23-6 second quarter that pushed the Huskers to a 35-20 halftime lead.

SENIOR (2022-23)

A three-time honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection and three-time team captain, Isabelle Bourne closed an impressive four-year career by averaging 12.6 points and 6.7 rebounds as a senior. She chose to forego a potential fifth season of eligibility to return to Australia and pursue a pro career in the WNBL.

Bourne capped her 115-game Husker career with 82 starts over her final three seasons. She finished No. 21 on Nebraska's all-time scoring list with 1,221 points and No. 15 on the Husker career rebounding chart with 648 boards. She was one of only 14 players in school history to reach the combined career milestones of 1,200 points and 600 rebounds. She scored in double figures 61 times and had 10 career double-doubles.

The 6-2 forward from Canberra, Australia, produced double-figure points in 12 of NU's final 13 games, including a pair of 20-point efforts, averaging 15.3 points and 7.1 rebounds with three double-doubles. She put up double digits in 21 of 30 games, including three 20-point efforts and five double-doubles.

In Nebraska's three Postseason WNIT games, Bourne averaged 16.7 points and 9.7 rebounds, helping the Huskers advance to the WNIT Super 16. She opened with 16 points and 12 rebounds in a win over Missouri State (March 15), before adding 17 points and 11 boards in a win over Northern Iowa (March 19). She closed her Husker career with 17 points, six rebounds and a career-high three steals at eventual WNIT champion Kansas (March 23).

Bourne opened her senior year with a season-high 21 points in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7), before adding a double-double with 14 points and 10 boards in a win over Tarleton (Nov. 22). She started each of NU's first nine games, including an impressive three-game road stretch that began with 18 points in an overtime win over NCAA qualifier Mississippi State in Puerto Rico (Nov. 26).

She added a double-double with 15 points and 12 rebounds at No. 9 and eventual ACC Champion and NCAA Final Four qualifier Virginia Tech (Dec. 1).

Nebraska drew its first sellout crowd for women's basketball with 13,595 fans at the Devaney Center on Feb. 27, 2010. The Huskers, who drew 10 straight crowds of more than 10,000 fans to close 2010, defeated Missouri 67-51.

HUSKERS CELEBRATED FINAL SEASON AT DEVANEY IN 2012-13

NEBRASKA FACED UTAH AT DEVANEY ON NOV. 23, 2014

For 37 seasons (1976-2013) the Nebraska women's basketball team called the Bob Devaney Sports Center home. In 2013-14, the Huskers made a successful move into Pinnacle Bank Arena, tying the school record with 16 home victories while ranking No. 8 nationally in total attendance (110,892). Nebraska made its regular-season debut at the 15,000-seat Pinnacle Bank Arena with a resounding 77-49 victory over Pac-12 power UCLA on Nov. 8, 2013.

Little more than a year later, the Huskers returned to their old home court to face another Pac-12 foe, when Nebraska defeated Utah, 66-43, at the Devaney Center on Nov. 23, 2014. The game against the Utes was the first played by the Huskers on their old home court since the Devaney Center was completely renovated for volleyball prior to the 2013 season.

In Nebraska's final season of women's basketball at the Devaney Center (2012-13), the building featured a seating capacity of 13,595. The nearly $20 million in renovations at the Devaney Center reduced capacity to 7,907 with standing room approaching nearly 8,500. The Husker volleyball program led the nation in home attendance in 2013 with 8,175 fans per match.

The renovations to the Devaney Center continued with significant upgrades to the outside of the building in 2014. Inside, ceiling trusses have been added to provide an historic feel, while five luxurious suites and large new 10MM video screens have been installed to help create an electric atmosphere.

Although the Huskers no longer compete at the Devaney Center as their permanent home, the team's impressive practice facility, the Hendricks Training Complex, is attached to the Devaney Center. Not only do the Huskers continue to utilize the Devaney Center for summer camps, the building also serves as a host site, along with Pinnacle Bank Arena, for the Nebraska Boys and Girls State Basketball Tournaments.

Named after Nebraska Hall of Fame football coach and athletic director Bob Devaney (1962-93), the Devaney Center opened in the fall of 1976 and is located on NU's Innovation Campus (formerly the Nebraska State Fairgrounds). The building currently houses Nebraska's volleyball, track, swimming, wrestling and gymnastics teams.

In 2009-10, Nebraska ranked seventh nationally with a school-record average home attendance of 7,390 fans per game. The Huskers also led the Big 12 in league games only by averaging 11,383 fans per contest, including seven consecutive crowds of more than 10,000 fans to close the season. NU sold out the Devaney Center for women's basketball with 13,595 on hand for a win over Missouri on Feb. 27, 2010. The Huskers have regularly ranked among the top 30 teams in average attendance, including 16th in 2012-13.

HUSKERS GROW TRADITION WITH WILLIAMS

By Mike Babcock & Jeff Griesch

"This team of Huskers likes to practice. And they say practice makes perfect. And now they are. Perfect regular season! Perfect regular season! Nebraska finishes the regular season perfect - 29-0!"

As those words boomed from the voice of Husker play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney, the Huskers completed the first unbeaten regular season by a Big 12 men's or women's basketball team in history in 2009-10.

Nebraska's win came with more than 2,000 Big Red fans on hand at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan, Kan., on a day that All-American Kelsey Griffin erupted for a career-high 36 points on 15-of-19 shooting from the field in an 82-72 win over the Wildcats on March 6, 2010.

For Griffin and the Huskers, it was another step in a history-making season that left the Nebraska record book in turmoil and the Husker Nation in a fan frenzy.

The win over Kansas State also capped a perfect 16-0 conference campaign that gave the Huskers their first-ever Big 12 crown. Nebraska clinched that title at the Lloyd Noble Center in Norman, Okla., as the No. 3 Huskers ran past No. 11 and defending Big 12 champion Oklahoma, 80-64 on Feb. 24.

Griffin, the 2010 Big 12 Player of the Year, dominated the Sooners as well, pouring in 30 points while pulling down 13 rebounds, as NU improved to 13-0 in league play.

Nebraska returned home to power past Missouri, 67-51, as Griffin led the Huskers with 19 points and career highs of 17 rebounds and five blocked shots.

Following the game, the first-ever sellout crowd of 13,595 fans at the Devaney Center stayed to witness the presentation of the Big 12 regular-season trophy and a net-cutting ceremony on the Huskers' homecourt.

After the ceremony, Griffin and the Huskers signed autographs for nearly 1,000 fans until almost midnight in the hallway near the locker room.

"We were sorry to keep them waiting so long, and we just couldn't stop signing," Griffin said. "Our fans have been awesome and it was an amazing night. We wanted to celebrate with them and send them home happy."

Griffin and the 2010 Huskers sent the fans home happy one more time on Senior Night with a 77-52 win over Kansas to complete a perfect 16-0 home campaign. Griffin and fellow first-team All-Big 12 selections Cory Montgomery and Yvonne Turner, along with seniors Kala Kuhlmann, Nicole Neals and Nikki Bober were honored as the largest and most successful senior class in school history.

More than 12,000 fans were on hand for their finale, the seventh consecutive crowd exceeding 10,000 to end the season - matching the total number of crowds of greater than 10,000 in the previous 35 seasons of Nebraska women's basketball.

The Huskers stretched their school-record winning streak to 30 games before falling in the Big 12 Tournament semifinals to No. 11 Texas A&M.

At 30-1, the Huskers earned the first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in school history, before beating Northern Iowa and UCLA at Williams Arena in Minneapolis to advance to the program's first NCAA Sweet 16.

Nebraska's breakthrough 32-2 season ended with a loss to No. 19 Kentucky at the Sprint Center in Kansas City. But the loss did not define the 2010 Huskers or their impact on Nebraska women's basketball.

In the locker room in the moments following the loss, Coach Connie Yori focused on the history and memories her team made.

"In the years to come when we look back on this year, we are going to remember everything that we accomplished," Yori said. "But you all know I've said this all along, when you look back on your time at Nebraska, you won't remember the wins and losses. You are going to remember all the great times you had with your teammates on and off the court."

Nebraska's focus on team chemistry, love and respect for one another, character, effort and mental toughness, allowed the Huskers to succeed at the highest levels of any team in school history.

Nebraska's first winner of the Senior CLASS Award in any sport, Griffin produced one of the best senior seasons in school history by averaging 20.1 points and 10.4 rebounds per game. She led an unprecedented hardware haul by Husker players by being named a first-team All-American by the WBCA, AP, USBWA and the Wooden Award.

Amy Williams was named Nebraska's 10th women's basketball coach on April 11, 2016. A four-year letterwinner at Nebraska (Amy Gusso, 1995-98), Williams was the Summit League Coach of the Year at South Dakota in 2015 and 2016. She was the Big Ten Coach of the Year after leading Nebraska to the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

A Wade and Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award finalist, Griffin was a three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection. She was joined by Montgomery and Turner on the first team, while Dominique Kelley earned honorable-mention accolades and Lindsey Moore was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

Griffin and Turner were both named to the league's five-player All-Defensive Team, while Turner was named the Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

The Huskers continued to make history after the season ended, as Griffin was chosen as the No. 3 overall pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft. Selected by the Minnesota Lynx and then traded to the Connecticut Sun, Griffin became the highest Husker draft pick in history.

A little more than one hour later, Montgomery joined Griffin as the first pick of the third round with the No. 25 overall pick to the New York Liberty.

"It was truly a special season - a season that we will all remember for the rest of our lives," Yori said. "This was the hardest working team and the best practicing team I have ever coached, and the results were obvious. This team deserved every win and every award it received."

Yori was named the WBCA, AP, USBWA, Naismith and Kay Yow National Coach of the Year. She also earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors. She added Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2013 and 2014.

In 2014, Nebraska captured its first-ever conference tournament title by winning the Big Ten crown at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. Jordan Hooper, who replaced Griffin in Nebraska's starting lineup, earned Big Ten Player-of-the-Year honors and first-team WBCA All-America accolades - just like her predecessor.

Hooper, a 6-2 forward from Alliance, Neb., tied Griffin's school record with 40 double-doubles and was named a first-team Senior CLASS All-American. A tremendous outside shooter, Hooper also smashed NU's three-point record with 295 in her career. She averaged 20.4 points and 9.1 rebounds per game to lead the Huskers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2013, Hooper helped the Big Red to their second NCAA Sweet 16, after leading NU to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2012. In her final three seasons, Hooper's Husker teams averaged 25 wins per season, the best three-year stretch in Nebraska history. Hooper went on to be the No. 13 overall pick in the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock.

Hooper's selection, which followed Lindsey Moore's No. 12 pick by the 2013 WNBA champion Minnesota Lynx, gave the Huskers three top-15 WNBA picks and six All-America awards claimed by the Huskers from 2010 to 2014.

Like the 2010 team, the 2014 Huskers featured All-Big Ten players from top-to-bottom in their starting five. Rachel Theriot earned honorable-mention All-America accolades after being named the Big Ten Tournament MVP and a first-team All-Big Ten choice. Emily Cady and Tear'a Laudermill added second-team All-Big Ten awards, while Hailie Sample claimed a spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team.

Although the Huskers lost Hooper to graduation and Theriot to injury 21 games into the 2014-15 campaign, Nebraska's senior class of Cady, Laudermill, Sample and Brandi Jeffery continued the Huskers' NCAA Tournament tradition. The four seniors became the most successful class in history by becoming the first group of Huskers to advance to four consecutive NCAA tournaments. They also became the first class to produce four straight 20-win seasons on their way to a four-year program record 96 wins.

In 2015-16, Yori's 14 seasons at Nebraska came to an end with an 18-13 record that included a trip to the Postseason WNIT. She finished as the winningest coach in Nebraska women's basketball history with 280 victories, averaging 20 wins per season.

Yori had come to Nebraska on June 24, 2002. She took over following back-to-back losing seasons under Coach Paul Sanderford, and struggled to an 8-20 mark with only a handful of scholarship players in 2002-03. In her second season, Nebraska improved to 18-12 overall and made its first of seven straight postseason tournament appearances.

The Huskers added a postseason trip in 2004-05, despite featuring four first-time starters. Sophomore Kiera Hardy earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, while Jelena Spiric claimed Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades. NU was also back in the top 25 in the national attendance rankings, averaging more than 4,000 fans per game.

The Huskers also produced the biggest win in school history with a 103-99 triple overtime victory over eventual national champion Baylor at Devaney on Jan. 12.

Nebraska made a third straight Postseason WNIT trip in 2005-06, again featuring Hardy as a first-team All-Big 12 guard, while adding Big 12 All-Freshman selection Kelsey Griffin at forward.

Hardy and Griffin helped the Huskers to a 19-13 mark in 2005-06, but still came up a win or two short of their goal of getting Nebraska back to the Big Dance.

BIG RED BUILD TITLE TRADITION IN BIG TEN

That mission was accomplished in 2007, as Hardy earned first-team All-Big 12 honors for the third straight season while shattering NU's career three-point record. Griffin joined Hardy with first-team All-Big 12 accolades, and the Huskers finished with a 22-10 overall record and a trip to the 2007 NCAA Tournament in Raleigh, N.C.

The Huskers fell in the first round to Temple, but it set up a repeat trip to the Big Dance in 2008. This time around, the 21-12 Huskers, again led by first-team All-Big 12 forward Griffin, knocked off Xavier in the first round.

After picking up just the third NCAA Tournament win in school history, the Huskers battled top-seeded Maryland down to the wire on the Terps' homecourt.

Griffin was the only returning starter on the 2008 team, as she was joined by senior Danielle Page, sophomore Yvonne Turner, junior college transfer Tay Hester and freshman Dominique Kelley in the Husker starting five.

The Huskers entered 2008-09 with high hopes, but those aspirations were tempered by a preseason foot injury to Griffin. Her injury required a pair of surgeries and she was forced to redshirt. Nebraska's inside depth was further challenged by a season-ending knee injury to Nikki Bober near the end of non-conference play. Starting forward Cory Montgomery played the entire season, but battled multiple injuries that limited her practice time early in the year. Turner also played through a shoulder injury, while Kaitlyn Burke, a part-time starter at shooting guard, struggled with a broken finger on her shooting hand.

Despite starting conference play 1-8, the Huskers refused to surrender and closed the Big 12 campaign as one of the league's hottest teams. NU finished the regular season with a 15-14 mark and a 6-10 Big 12 record to secure a seventh straight postseason trip.

Griffin, Turner, Montgomery and Kelley all returned to the starting lineup in 2009-10, and added Moore, the 2009 Washington High School Player of the Year at the point guard spot. The starting five, along with experienced senior reserves Kala Kuhlmann and Nicole Neals, and juniors Catheryn Redmon and Jessica Periago gave the Huskers the talent and depth to contend on the national level.

After injuries and graduation left the Huskers short-handed in 2010-11, a young Nebraska squad began a new building process in 2011-12. In the Huskers' first-ever Big Ten Conference season, a roster that featured six freshmen among just 10 active players rolled to the fourth-highest victory total in school history with a 24-9 record. After posting a 10-6 Big Ten regular-season mark, the Huskers stormed to the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game before falling in two overtimes to Purdue.

The young Huskers advanced to the school's 10th NCAA Tournament after posting nine wins over 2012 NCAA Tournament teams. Not only did the Huskers have to overcome their own inexperience, all five starters overcame injuries to start every game during the season.

Hooper became the first sophomore in school history to reach 1,000 career points, while becoming the first NU sophomore to produce 600 points and 300 rebounds in a season. Nebraska's first-ever first-team All-Big Ten selection, Hooper also claimed honorable-mention All-America honors from the AP and the WBCA.

A candidate for the Wade and Naismith National Player-of-the-Year awards, Hooper was joined on the Naismith watch list by Moore. The 5-9 junior was also one of eight finalists for the Nancy Lieberman Award as the nation's top point guard. A second-team All-Big Ten pick, Moore joined Hooper on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team and in Nebraska's 1,000-point club.

Cady earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman team after producing one of the best rookie seasons in school history. The 6-2 forward from Seward, Neb., joined Sample in becoming the first freshmen in school history to start every game together during their rookie seasons.

The duo went on to join Hooper in the starting five for 100 consecutive games in Nebraska's first three seasons of Big Ten play.

That trio, along with Nebraska's career assist leader and 2013 honorable-mention All-American Moore, fueled the Huskers to their second NCAA Sweet 16. NU's four returning starters were joined by another Big Ten All-Freshman selection, Rachel Theriot, in powering the Huskers to a 25-9 record and a 12-4 Big Ten mark.

All-American Kelsey Griffin earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors while leading the Huskers to 30 straight wins and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. She had her jersey retired on Jan. 29, 2014.

The Huskers played for a share of the Big Ten regular-season title in the final home game at the Devaney Center. Although they came up short, the Huskers went on to defeat Chattanooga, 73-59 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at College Station, Texas. Two nights later, the sixth-seeded Huskers pulled one of the biggest upsets of the tournament, knocking off SEC Tournament champion and No. 9 ranked Texas A&M, 74-63, on the Aggies' homecourt at Reed Arena.

Moore closed her amazing career with her fifth double-double, producing 20 points and 10 assists. Sample made a triumphant return to her home state with 10 points and 11 rebounds to add her first career double-double.

Moore, who led NU to three NCAA tournaments including a pair of Sweet 16 bids, started more games (132) and played more minutes (4,360) than any player in school history. She also set the school record with 699 career assists, while adding 1,673 points.

Hooper was the lone senior on NU's 2013-14 squad, but she was joined by juniors Cady, Sample and Laudermill, and sophomore honorable-mention All-America point guard Theriot in the starting five.

The 2014 Huskers finished with a 26-7 overall record for the second-best winning percentage in school history, while adding a 12-4 Big Ten mark. NU played for a share of the Big Ten regular-season title again on the final day of the season, but came up short at Purdue.

After having a nine-game conference winning streak snapped in West Lafayette, the Huskers rallied for three straight convincing wins over Minnesota, No. 19 Michigan State and No. 23 Iowa at the Big Ten Tournament.

After earning their first-ever NCAA Tournament automatic bid, the Huskers claimed a No. 4 seed and defeated Fresno State, 74-55, at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles. NU moved one game away from a chance to compete as a host in the NCAA Sweet 16 in its new Pinnacle Bank Arena, but came up short in an 80-74 loss to BYU.

The Cougars joined 2014 NCAA champion Connecticut, Texas A&M and DePaul for the NCAA Lincoln Regional in 2014 - the first NCAA Tournament basketball games in Lincoln since 1993.

Nearly 17,000 fans watched the three games in Lincoln, leading UConn Coach Geno Auriemma to acknowledge and praise the rise of women's basketball at Nebraska.

"Everybody's heard about the crowds here, the facilities here. Everything that's going on here. Every day's been great. The people are phenomenal. The building is spectacular. This is really, really, really nice. There's no doubt in my mind there will be another regional here, no question. Most places are fans of their team, not necessarily fans of the game. Here I think they take tremendous pride in their team, their school and the community, and they showed it."

The move into the new Pinnacle Bank Arena in downtown Lincoln brought even more excitement to Husker basketball. The $179 million arena held a school-record-tying 16 home wins in 2013-14, along with the 11th-highest average home attendance (6,161) in NCAA women's basketball. Nebraska's total attendance of more than 110,000 ranked eighth nationally and was the second-best total in school history, trailing only the 2010 season.

The Big Red attracted more than 6,000 fans per game to Pinnacle Bank Arena again in 2014-15, and ranked among the top 10 nationally in total attendance in each of the Huskers' first three seasons in the new building.

The current atmosphere is a far cry from its humble beginnings on the UNL campus. In March of 1898, a university women's team played a game against an outside opponent for the first time. The opposition was provided by a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa. The contest was played at the Nebraska armory, Grant Memorial Hall.

Among the matters to be resolved before the game was whether men's rules or those of Smith College should apply. In 1894, only three years after Dr. James Naismith established the rules for basketball, Senda Berenson, director of physical education at Smith College in Massachusetts, modified Naismith's game for women.

In contrast to the Nebraska team, the captain of which was graduate student Louise Pound, the team from Council Bluffs had been playing by the more physical men's rules. A compromise was reached. The first half would by played by men's rules, the second by Smith College rules. The teams played six on a side: two centers, two guards and two forwards. Pound played center.

Another issue was whether men should be allowed to attend. Administrators decided that any "gentleman'' accompanied by a "lady'' would be admitted, but single men might be prohibited lest the game attract the wrong kind of audience. The unflattering bloomers women wore in gym classes were regarded as inappropriate dress for mixed company, regardless of the circumstances. As a result, intramural track and field competition involving women was held indoors until 1904.

Early basketball games involving the university women were well-attended, and there was "always a goodly surplus in the treasury,'' according to the Nebraska State Journal. The gymnasium was filled well in advance of the game's start.

The Council Bluffs team, made up of girls who were "slighter of build and younger,'' proved to be no match for Pound and her university teammates. Pound, who also was the first all-university tennis champion, accounted for three field goals and five free throws in a 15-7 win.

The play of Nebraska's Harriet Cooke and Marie Beach drew mention in newspaper accounts. Cooke, like Pound, played center and accounted for Nebraska's other points. Beach was a guard, along with Marie Kennedy. The Council Bluffs forwards were much shorter and had difficulty passing the ball over Beach and Kennedy to their centers, who were responsible for scoring goals. Bertha du Teil and Helen Welch were Nebraska's forwards. Rose Long was a substitute.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896. As was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other. The first all-university women's team was organized in 1896, according to the Nebraska State Journal. It included the best players regardless of their class, among them Welch, the only player from that first team who participated in the contest against the Council Bluffs team in March of 1898. Welch and her five teammates were "trained'' by Anne Louise Barr and played other inter-class teams.

The first women's game played before an audience was part of NU's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923,'' published in the spring 1975 issue of Nebraska History.

Pound was the driving force in women's basketball at the university, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was a member of the team in the 1898-99 school year. It didn't play any opponents from outside of the university and very few intramural opponents, for that matter, because a large pipe organ donated by an alumni group was stored in the gym.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Hall. Nebraska was represented by a first and second team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High and Wahoo High. The university's first team, led by captain Eleanore Miller, won the two-day competition.

Karen Jennings earned the 1993 Wade Trophy and was Nebraska's first first-team All-American. Jennings was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for women's basketball and was inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west,'' according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its experienced opponent. Miller, who was still on the varsity team, had been succeeded as captain by Hannah Pillsbury. Nebraska won 31-4. The varsity team had yet to lose in its brief history.

Nebraska's varsity team didn't play against outside competition again until 1903, when it defeated the Omaha YWCA in Omaha 18-9 and a team from the Haskell Indian School in Lawrence, Kan., 42-8. The University second team also played that day, defeating Baker University, 22-1.

Efforts were being made to encourage intercollegiate competition for women, according to the Nebraska student yearbook for 1902, The Sombrero. The next university yearbook, published two years later, noted that women's basketball was experiencing dramatic growth.

In 1904, Nebraska suffered its first defeat, losing to the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out the Lincoln YWCA 16-0. NU avenged the loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

Nebraska was 3-0 in 1905, against the Haskell Indian School, Missouri and the Omaha YWCA, the last two games on the road. The season was short but successful, the student yearbook noted: "Owing to an inability to schedule games with desirable teams, only three games were played.'' In 1907, no women's varsity team was picked.

In March of 1908, Nebraska played games against Minnesota, home-and-home, two weeks apart. Nebraska lost them both, 9-3 and 28-22, after a five-minute overtime. Earlier, NU had defeated a team from Nebraska Wesleyan to finish its final season with a 1-2 record.

Despite their remarkable success, the university women were allowed to play basketball only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908. In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the Board of Regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. More than 60 years passed before the University sponsored women's teams.

Women's club teams were formed beginning in 1970. In 1974-75, such a team coached by Jan Callahan won nine of 16 games. Only three of the games were against opponents from outside the state. The team played on the small court in Mabel Lee Hall, which was named for the women's physical education director from 1924 to 1952. A typical audience might be 30, mostly friends and relatives of the players.

The modern era of women's basketball at Nebraska more accurately dates from 1975, with the arrival of Aleen Swofford as women's athletic director and the offering of scholarships. The total budget for women's athletics was less than $40,000.

George Nicodemus, an Iowa native who had directed John F. Kennedy College in Wahoo, Neb., to a pair of AAU women's national titles, succeeded Callahan as volunteer coach of NU's fledgling program in 1975. With seven scholarships and Jan Crouch, his tallest starter at 5-foot-11, Nicodemus produced a 22-9 record in his first season. The Huskers finished third in the Big Eight Tournament in Manhattan, Kan., in February of 1976. They won the state collegiate tournament held at Midland College in Fremont, Neb.; lost in the second round of an Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament in Fargo, N.D.; and finished by winning two consolation games at the National Women's Invitational Tournament at Amarillo, Texas.

"We are only a couple of tall girls away from winning a national championship,'' Nicodemus said after his first year. Nicodemus, whose duties also included the softball program, became a paid coach his second season at Nebraska, receiving an annual salary of $12,000. The Huskers finished 20-14 and took second to Kansas State at the league tournament in Boulder, Colo. Nebraska's season ended with a 74-54 loss at Nebraska-Omaha in the first round of the state tournament.

The UNO game was Nicodemus' last as NU's coach. Dr. June Davis, who had served for two years as women's sports information director at the university, succeeded Swofford as women's athletic director and set about replacing Nicodemus. He passed away on Sept. 3, 2016, at the age of 92.

Davis hired Marcia Walker, who had spent two years at Dakota Wesleyan. Walker announced she would resign with about a third of a 12-14 season remaining. The team would have four more coaches in the next nine years, including Lorrie Gallagher, Colleen Matsuhara, Kelly Hill and Angela Beck, who finally brought stability to the program in 1986.

Gallagher followed Walker and coached two 20-win seasons, both of which earned the Huskers AIAW regional tournament berths. The first of Matsuhara's three teams advanced to an AIAW regional, making it three in a row. NU would have only one winning season in the next five.

The Huskers lost nearly twice as often as they won during the next two years, which preceded the promotion of Dr. Barbara Hibner to women's athletic director and Beck's arrival from Bradley.

Among the dominant Nebraska players of the late 1970s and early 1980s were 1,000-point career-scorers Jan Crouch, Diane DelVigna, Janet Smith, Kathy Hagerstrom, Cathy Owen, Debra Powell, Stacy Imming and Angie Miller. Powell finished her four-year career in 1984-85 with 1,843 points.

Powell was the first Husker to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors, earning the award as a junior. DelVigna was the most prolific of the eight scorers, averaging 19.1 points per game during her two seasons at NU. Smith, who played on the three consecutive AIAW regional qualifiers coached by Gallagher and Matsuhara, pulled down a school-record 1,280 rebounds and scored 1,284 points.

The 29-year-old Beck, a native of Decatur, Ill., had been an All-American at Millikan, an NCAA Division III school in her hometown. Beck inherited two players who helped the Huskers make history by capturing their first Big Eight regular-season title, the best record in school history and the first NCAA Tournament bid in 1988.

The two players, both Nebraskans, were Maurtice Ivy and Amy Stephens. The 5-foot-9 Ivy joined the Huskers in 1984, after a remarkable career at Omaha Central. She was a three-time Super-State basketball player and was chosen by the Lincoln Journal Star as the state's outstanding female high school athlete for 1984. Stephens arrived a year later from Alliance, Neb., where she enjoyed a high school career as much publicized as that of Ivy. Both were prolific scorers.

Ivy was the first player to score 2,000 career points at Nebraska. She reached that total, appropriately enough, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on "Maurtice Ivy Night'' in February of 1988. Mayor Bernie Simon had declared Feb. 17, "Maurtice Ivy Day'' in Omaha. A proclamation to that effect was read before the game against Kansas. Ivy received a plaque from Omaha's Lewis and Clark Junior High, and her high school coach announced that her No. 22 jersey was being retired by Omaha Central.

Proving her sense of the dramatic was as keen as her shooting eye, Ivy hit a free throw with 23 seconds left for point No. 2,001. That point also secured what would be a 76-72 victory. Ivy hit three more free throws before game's end. The win was crucial to Nebraska winning the conference crown and earning an at-large bid in the NCAA Tournament. The season and Ivy's Nebraska career ended at 22-7 with a 100-82 loss at USC in the first round of the regional at Los Angeles. Ivy was chosen as the 1988 Big Eight Player of the Year. Beck was the conference coach of the year, and Kim Harris, a transfer from Bradley, earned Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year honors.

Ivy, whose career point total reached 2,131, was named to the Big Eight's all-decade women's basketball team for the 1980s. Stephens, who finished just 24 points shy of 2,000, received honorable mention on the all-decade team.

Karen Jennings was recruited from Persia, Iowa, in 1989, after playing six-on-six, half-court basketball at Tri-Center High School in Neola, Iowa, where she averaged an astonishing 59 points per game as a senior. Jennings adapted quickly to five-on-five basketball, leading the Huskers to back-to-back 20-win seasons as a junior and senior. She was voted the Big Eight Player of the Year both seasons, and in 1992-93, after Nebraska earned an NCAA regional bid, was chosen a first-team WBCA All-American.

Nebraska finished second in the Big Eight, then lost to Kansas 64-60 in the conference championship game at Jordan Hooper earned first-team WBCA All-America honors after being named the 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year. Hooper was a starter on the USA Basketball World University Games Team that won gold in Russia in 2013.

Salina, Kan., to enter NCAA play with a 22-7 record. The Huskers defeated San Diego in Lincoln, 81-58, before losing to USC, 78-60, in Los Angeles.

During a ceremony at halftime of a victory against Iowa State at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in January of 1995, Karen Jennings' No. 51 jersey was retired. Jennings was the first woman basketball player in the history of the University of Nebraska to be so honored.

Given Jennings' accomplishments in four seasons as a Husker, the honor was a slam dunk. She was the first woman in school history to be chosen as a first-team basketball All-American. She was awarded the Margaret Wade Trophy after her senior season. Wade was the first women's coach to be inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. The trophy named in her honor is presented annually by the WBCA to the women's collegiate player voted to be the nation's best.

Jennings twice was honored as the Big Eight Conference Player of the Year. She finished as Nebraska's career scoring leader and the second-leading scorer in conference history. She was first-team all-conference three times, and she led the Huskers to the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Jennings distinguished herself in the classroom as well. She was a three-time Academic All-American. She earned Big Eight and NCAA post-graduate scholarships, and her academic success, combined with her athletic accomplishments, earned her recognition as the Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year in 1993.

Jennings continued to thrive following her tremendous athletic and academic accomplishments at Nebraska. After a successful career as a physical therapist, she changed gears and thrived in the real estate business in Omaha. Along the way, she contributed thousands of hours of community service and began to raise a family. For her success as a collegiate student-athlete and her accomplishments after her career, Jennings was honored with induction into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in the summer of 2008.

Described as "the best of the best of the best" by longtime Academic All-America Hall of Fame spokesman and award-winning broadcaster Dick Enberg, fewer than 300 student-athletes all-time, across all-sports have been honored with Hall of Fame induction.

She also was selected to the inaugural class of the University of Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

Beck, who added a freshman walk-on from Spearfish, S.D., named Amy Gusso to her 1994-95 roster, coached Nebraska to the 1996 NCAA Tournament before leaving for the fledgling (and now defunct) American Basketball League after the 1996-97 season. Beck was replaced by Paul Sanderford, who had taken Western Kentucky to the NCAA Tournament 12 times in 15 years as a coach. His Hilltoppers advanced to the semifinals three times and lost in the 1992 title game.

The 1997-98 squad led by Anna DeForge included fellow senior Gusso and tied then-school records for wins (23) and conference victories (11) and advanced to an NCAA sub-regional at Norfolk, Va., where it defeated New Mexico before bowing out against perennial power Old Dominion.

In 1998-99, the Nicole Kubik-led Huskers finished 21-12 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing to Kentucky 98-92. In 1999-2000, the Huskers achieved another school first by advancing to their third consecutive NCAA Tournament, while Kubik capped her career by finishing as the school's No. 7 all-time scorer while ranking in the top 25 in NCAA Division I history with 418 career steals.

Kubik joined fellow seniors Brooke Schwartz and Charlie Rogers in becoming the first Nebraska natives from the same recruiting class to all score 1,000 points. Keeping the best of Nebraska's players at home has continued.

Yvonne Turner, the 2006 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, finished her NU career with 1,101 points, while becoming just the sixth guard in Husker history with more than 1,000 points, 200 assists and 200 steals. Dominique Kelley, the 2007 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, joined Turner in the 1,000-point club one year later.

Jordan Hooper was the 2008 and 2010 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, and finished her Husker career No. 2 in points (2,357) and rebounds (1,110). Emily Cady became the 13th native Nebraskan in NU's 1,000-point club and closed her outstanding four-year career with 1,461 points, 1,114 rebounds and 305 assists as one of the most versatile players in school history.

The Huskers began a new chapter in their women's basketball history with the return of Coach Amy (Gusso) Williams in 2016-17. A hard-working former Husker who earned back-to-back Summit League Coach-of-the-Year honors at South Dakota (2015, 2016), Williams began a substantial rebuilding project in 2016-17.

In her second season at Nebraska, Williams captured Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors by leading the nation's top turnaround while guiding the Huskers to the NCAA Tournament in 2018.

Nebraska was postseason eligible again in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic ended seasons around the world. NU rebuilt again to earn a trip to the 2021 WNIT, before advancing to their 15th NCAA Tournament in school history with their 18th 20-win season in 2021-22.

Four Huskers earned All-Big Ten honors in 2021-22, led by Big Ten Freshman of the Year Alexis Markowski. The two-time Nebraska High School Player of the Year joined fellow newcomer Jaz Shelley in earning second-team All-Big Ten honors, while captains Sam Haiby and Isabelle Bourne claimed honorable-mention accolades. Another native Nebraskan, Allison Weidner emerged into the starting five as a freshman in 2021-22.

The same four Huskers earned All-Big Ten honors again in 2022-23, led by Shelley, who claimed first-team honors. Markowski added second-team accolades while Bourne and Haiby pitched in honorable-mention recognition. Haiby's season was reduced by injuries at the start and end of the year, while Weidner suffered a season-ending injury in the 13th game - a triple-overtime win over then-unbeaten and No. 20 Kansas. The Huskers finished 18-15 and just missed another NCAA Tournament bid before advancing to the WNIT Super 16.

As the popularity of women's basketball at Nebraska continues to grow, the Huskers are confident that the best in the growing tradition of Big Red basketball is yet to come.

The most decorated women's basketball player in school history, Karen Jennings earned the Margaret Wade Trophy as the nation's outstanding player and WBCA/Kodak First-Team All-America honors in 1993.

The 6-2 forward from Persia, Iowa, was a four-year starter and led Nebraska to the second round of the 1993 NCAA Tournament. The first Husker to have her jersey retired, Jennings' No. 51 was retired in 1994 and formally put on display at the Devaney Center in 2006. A giant banner displaying her name and No. 51 are now on permanent display alongside Maurtice Ivy's No. 30 and Kelsey Griffin's No. 23 at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

In March of 2015, she was named to the inaugural class of the University of Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame - one of 22 athletes across all sports.

Jennings was one of the top student-athletes in NU history. She captured College Sports Communicators Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1992 and 1993, while claiming CSC First-Team Academic All-America honors three times (1991, 1992, 1993). A two-time Big Eight Conference Player of the Year (1992, 1993) and a three-time first-team all-conference pick, Jennings was the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year in 1990.

The captain of Nebraska's All-Century Team announced in February of 2000, Jennings closed her career as the first player in school history to score more than 2,000 points and record 1,000 rebounds.

Jennings was also chosen as one of 25 Women of Distinction honored during the Nebraska Athletic Department's Silver Anniversary celebration of 25 years of women's athletics at NU in 1999-2000.

Jennings averaged 20.2 points and 8.4 rebounds per game in her career, while ranking first in points (2,405). She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (1,000), first in field goals made (981), second in field-goal percentage (.568), third in field goals attempted (1,726), tied for fourth in free throws attempted (570) and fifth in free throws made (426).

Jennings' 810 points and 25.3 points per game average in 1991-92 rank as the top single-season totals in school history, while her 10.0 rebounds per game allowed her to average a double-double as a junior. She also owns NU's single-game scoring mark with 48 points in an 87-82 win at Kansas State on Jan. 21, 1992.

In her freshman season, the Huskers struggled to a 10-18 overall record, but with Jennings as a nucleus, NU improved to 17-11 the next season. She set the Husker sophomore record for scoring average at 20.5 points per game (574 points).

NU continued to improve in Jennings' record-setting junior campaign, posting a 21-11 mark and advancing to the National Women's Invitational Tournament.

In her final season, Jennings helped Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament win in history with 14 points and eight rebounds in an 81-58 win over San Diego at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on March 17, 1993.

Jennings added 16 points and 13 rebounds in a 78-60 loss at Southern California in the tournament's second round. NU finished with a 23-8 record and a second-place finish with a 10-4 mark in the Big Eight.

Jennings also claimed a spot on the Big Eight All-Tournament team after leading the Huskers to the tournament championship game.

Following a career in physical therapy, Jennings became a highly successful real estate agent in Omaha. Jennings became the first Nebraska female student-athlete to be inducted into the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

The most athletic forward in Nebraska women's basketball history, Jordan Hooper finished No. 2 at NU in points (2,357) and third in rebounds (1,110) while smashing the Husker record with 295 threes.

The 6-2 forward from Alliance, Neb., not only finished in a tie for No. 4 in Big Ten Conference history in three-pointers made, she was also one of only three players in Big Ten history to achieve the combined milestones of 2,300 points and 1,100 rebounds. She was the first Husker to ever accomplish that feat.

Hooper, who tied Kelsey Griffin's school record with 40 career double-doubles, became Nebraska's first Big Ten Player of the Year in 2014, joining Griffin (Big 12, 2010), Karen Jennings (Big Eight, 1993) and Maurtice Ivy (Big Eight, 1988) as the only Huskers to claim conference player-of-the-year awards.

As a senior, Hooper became the third first-team All-American in Nebraska history, joining fellow 2,000-point scorers Jennings (1993) and Griffin (2010). A standout on the court, in the classroom and in the community, Hooper was one of five Senior CLASS Award first-team All-Americans. She was a second-team All-American by the Associated Press before being selected by Tulsa with the No. 13 pick in the WNBA Draft.

Hooper led the Big Red to the most successful three-year stretch in school history. NU finished with a 26-7 overall record during Hooper's senior season. The Huskers played for a share of the regular-season Big Ten title in the final game of the year for the second straight season before settling for third with a 12-4 league mark in 2013-14.

NU played for a share of the regular-season crown, going 25-9 overall and 12-4 in the Big Ten in 2012-13.

As a sophomore, Hooper helped the Huskers to a 24-9 mark and a trip to the Big Ten Tournament title game.

After coming up short in those first three championship game appearances, Hooper and the Huskers claimed Nebraska's first-ever conference tournament title with a 72-65 win over Iowa on March 9, 2014, in Indianapolis.

Hooper also led the Big Red to three straight NCAA appearances from 2012 through 2014, including the school's second NCAA Sweet 16 bid in 2013. The 2013 and 2014 Huskers also became the first teams in NU history to win NCAA Tournament games in consecutive seasons. Overall, Nebraska averaged 25 wins per season in Hooper's last three years. Prior to her arrival as a two-time Nebraska Gatorade High School Player of the Year (2008, 2010), only one Husker team had ever won more than 23 games in a season.

A three-time All-American by both the WBCA and the Associated Press, Hooper was a three-time candidate for the Wade and Naismith trophies. She was a finalist for the Wade and Wooden awards in 2014. She was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten and a two-time Big Ten All-Tournament choice. Hooper was also a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and NU's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner in 2014.

As a senior, Hooper averaged 20.4 points and 9.1 rebounds to push her career averages to 18.0 points and 8.5 boards per game. She started all 131 games of her career to rank third in NU history, while becoming one of just three Huskers to play 4,000 career minutes.

The first pick of the second round of the 2014 WNBA Draft by Tulsa, Hooper averaged 5.8 points and 2.4 rebounds per game as a rookie, before helping the Shock to the playoffs in her second WNBA season. She played for the Dallas Wings in 2016, before splitting time with Connecticut, Atlanta and Chicago in 2017.

In addition to her four seasons in the WNBA, Hooper has been a professional overseas for nine years. She played for Besiktas (Turkey) in 2014-15, averaging 13.1 points and 6.0 rebounds per game.

Hooper played 15 games for Atenienses de Manat in Puerto Rico before starring for Southeast Queensland in Australia's WNBL in 2015-16. She ranked third in scoring (18.5 ppg) and seventh in rebounding (8.6 rpg) in the league.

She went back to Turkey to play for the University of Istanbul Club in 2016-17, averaging 12.5 points and 6.2 rebounds over 25 games, before returning to the WNBL to average 11.8 points and 5.0 rebounds for the Canberra Capitals in 2017-18.

One of the most athletic players in Nebraska history, Maurtice Ivy was the first player in Husker history to surpass the 2,000-point barrier.

Ivy, who became the second Husker to have her jersey retired (Jan. 16, 2011), joins fellow 2,000-point scorers Karen Jennings (No. 51, 1994) and Kelsey Griffin (No. 23, 2014) in being honored with giant banners featuring their names and numbers on display at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Ivy also became the second women's basketball player inducted into the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2020.

Ivy was one of five players chosen to Nebraska's All-Century Team in February of 2000, and one of the "25 Women of Distinction" selected in 1999-2000 as part of the school's silver anniversary of women's athletics.

The athletic wing player from Omaha Central High School was the first Husker to earn Big Eight Player-of-the-Year honors after leading Nebraska to the Big Eight title in 1988. Ivy also earned a spot on the Big Eight All-Tournament team in 1986-87 and 1987-88.

A three-time first-team All-Big Eight pick, Ivy's 19.2 points per game rank second on Nebraska's career charts, while her 778 career rebounds rank ninth on the Huskers' all-time list. She is also tied for eighth in Husker history with 21 career double-doubles, including 10 as a sophomore in 1985-86.

Although Ivy was only 5-9, her outstanding leaping ability and court awareness made her a fierce shot blocker, as she ranks seventh on NU's all-time list with 104 blocked shots. Ivy also ranks, second in career field goals made (847) and attempted (1,799), third in free throws made (431), tied for fourth in free throws attempted (570) and eighth in career steals (215).

Ivy's 23.6 points per game average in 1986-87 rank as the second-best single-season scoring average in school history, and her 683 points as a junior rank as the fourth-highest total at Nebraska. Her 153 made free throws and 196 free throws attempted in 1986-87 were single-season Nebraska records until Kelsey Griffin and Dominique Kelley both eclipsed those marks in 2009-10.

Ivy produced one of the greatest performances in Husker history when she erupted for 46 points in Nebraska's 100-87 loss to Illinois at Maples Pavilion in Stanford, Calif., on Dec. 30, 1986.

It was one of eight 30-point scoring efforts in Ivy's career, including a pair of 35-point performances against Oklahoma and Kansas in 1987.

She added the 11th-best rebound total in school history with 19 boards to go along with 23 points in a 104-63 win over Brigham Young at the Illinois Invitational in Champaign, Ill., on Dec. 14, 1985. She also had 29 points and 14 rebounds at Iowa State on Feb. 22, 1986.

Along with leading the Huskers to their first conference title, Ivy guided Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1988.

Ivy led the Huskers in the 100-82 loss at USC with a team-high 22 points to go along with nine rebounds, four assists, one blocked shot and one steal in her final game in a Nebraska uniform. Ivy served as an assistant coach at Nebraska-Omaha from the summer of 2004 through the end of the 2006-07 season, before becoming the head coach at Peru State College in the summer of 2007. She coached for six seasons at Peru State. She currently lives in Omaha.

One of the most decorated players in Nebraska history, Kelsey Griffin joined her 2,000-point scoring predecessors Karen Jennings and Maurtice Ivy with the honor of having her jersey retired on Jan. 29, 2014. A banner with Griffin's No. 23 and her name hang alongside Jennings' No. 51 and Ivy's No. 30 on permanent display at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Griffin also joined Jennings and Ivy with induction into the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2021.

Griffin produced one of the best senior seasons in school history on her way to first-team All-America honors in 2009-10. The 6-2 forward from Eagle River, Alaska, averaged 20.1 points and 10.4 rebounds per game while leading Nebraska to its best season in school history. The 2010 Big 12 Player of the Year, Griffin earned first-team All-America honors from the WBCA, Associated Press, U.S. Basketball Writers Association and the Wooden Award while powering Nebraska to its first NCAA Sweet 16 and its first Big 12 regular-season title.

Along the way, Griffin was named a finalist for every major national player-of-the-year award (Wade, Naismith, Wooden, Honda) and was Nebraska's first Senior CLASS Award winner in any sport. She was also a finalist for the V Foundation Comeback Award and the National Consortium on Academics and Sports Giant Steps Courageous Student-Athlete Award.

Griffin, who led Nebraska to its highest national rankings and first NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed, closed her career with a then-school-record 127 starts. She ranks fourth in school history with 2,033 points and 1,019 rebounds. She joins 1993 Wade Trophy winner Karen Jennings and 2014 first-team All-American Jordan Hooper as the only Huskers in history with 2,000 points and 1,000 boards. Griffin and Hooper also share the NU career record with 40 double-doubles. Griffin produced a single-season record 20 double-doubles as a senior in 2009-10.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 pick, Griffin earned a spot on the Big 12 All-Defensive Team as a senior with single-season career bests of 60 steals, 26 blocks and a remarkable 29 charges drawn.

Griffin erupted for a career-high 36 points at Kansas State on March 6 to carry NU to the first perfect season in Big 12 history, helping the Huskers improve to 29-0 overall and 16-0 in the league. She hit 15-of-19 shots against the Wildcats. It was Griffin's fifth career 30-point effort, including her fourth as a senior (31 points, 11 rebounds vs. Creighton; 30/14 vs. No. 5 LSU; 30/13 at No. 11 Oklahoma).

Griffin earned six Big 12 Player-of-the-Week awards as a senior, including four straight to end the season. She finished with 104 career double-figure scoring efforts, including each of Nebraska's three games in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, when she averaged 18.3 points and 11.7 rebounds per game.

After a sensational start as a freshman, Griffin battled illness down the stretch, limiting her playing time during the last half of the 2006 Big 12 season.

In 2006-07, she was challenged by a breathing condition with effects similar to asthma. In 2007-08, Griffin played the entire year with a protective vest after cracking a rib in an exhibition game.

The rib injury and breathing condition could not stop Griffin from averaging 16.8 points and 8.2 rebounds. They also couldn't stop her from carrying NU to its first NCAA Tournament win since 1998.

Griffin erupted for 26 points going head-to-head with Xavier's post duo of 6-6 Ta'Shia Phillips and 6-5 Amber Harris to guide NU to a win over the Musketeers in College Park, Md.

However, in 2008-09 Griffin was forced to miss the entire season with a foot injury that required a pair of surgeries. She returned to full health before the start of the 2009-10 campaign.

Following her collegiate career, Griffin was the No. 3 overall pick in the WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx. She was quickly traded to the Connecticut Sun, where she earned one of five spots on the 2010 WNBA All-Rookie Team. Griffin spent her fifth and final WNBA season with the Connecticut Sun in 2014. In 2013, Griffin started all 34 games while averaging 8.7 points and 5.0 rebounds. She played 133 WNBA games with 61 starts in her first four seasons, while averaging 5.0 points and 3.9 boards per game in her career.

Griffin has continued to be one of the top professionals in the world as a three-time WNBL champion (2013, 2014, 2019) and a three-time WNBL Grand Final MVP (2013, 2014, 2019). The 2019 WNBL MVP, she is a three-time first-team All-WNBL choice (2015, 2016, 2019) and earned second-team honors in 2022. She was voted the WNBL Defensive Player of the Year in 2015.

Griffin played professionally in Hungary in 2010-11 and Israel in 2011-12, before joining the Bendigo Spirit in Australia's WNBL in 2012-13. She led Bendigo to the WNBL title and was named the MVP of the championship series in both 2013 and 2014. Griffin was a member of the WNBL All-Star Five and the league's Defensive Player of the Year in 2014-15, averaging 16.0 points and 9.2 rebounds.

She played alongside former Husker teammate and Canadian Olympian Chelsea Aubry in Bendigo for three seasons (2012-13 to 2014-15).

In 2015-16, Griffin ranked fourth in the WNBL in scoring (17.9 ppg), third in rebounding (10.0 rpg), fourth in steals (41) and ninth in blocks (20) despite battling a hamstring injury. In 2016-17, she averaged 15.1 points and 7.7 rebounds, before spending her sixth season in Bendigo in 2017-18.

In 2018-19, Griffin was the WNBL MVP after leading the Canberra Capitals to the league title. She led the WNBL in scoring (19.7 ppg) and rebounding (12.3 rpg) while ranking fifth in steals (1.7 spg) and eighth in blocks (1.0 bpg). She had 29 points and 15 rebounds in the championship game win over Adelaide, hitting five three-pointers. She was the MVP of the Grand Final, averaging 25.0 points and 16.7 rebounds in the series.

In 2020, the WNBL season was just six weeks (COVID-19), and Griffin appeared in 12 games, averaging 12 points and 8.1 rebounds for Canberra.

As a co-captain for the Capitals in 2021-22, Griffin earned second-team All-WNBL honors with 15.1 points, 8.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. She returned to Bendigo in 2022-23, averaging 15.3 points, 7.4 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 2.6 steals despite being limited by a hamstring injury. She has completed 13 pro seasons, including 11 in Australia.

She claimed her permanent citizenship in Australia in 2015, and earned MVP honors at the 2017 Asia Cup in her first Australian National Team appearance. She also competed for the Opals at the Commonwealth Games in 2018. She was scheduled to represent Australia in the first FIBA 3x3 Olympic Qualifying Tournament in India (March 18-22, 2020) before it was canceled by the coronavirus outbreak.

KIERA HARDY

2004-07
5-6, Guard
Kansas City, Mo.
(O'Hara)
1,930 Points (6)

Perhaps the most explosive player and creative shot-maker in Nebraska history, Kiera Hardy closed her career as one of the most prolific three-point shooters in Husker history.

Hardy, who earned WBCA Region 5 All-America honors as a senior, ranks sixth on Nebraska's all-time scoring list with 1,930 points. She also held NU's career three-point mark with 267 until Jordan Hooper hit 295 from 2011 to 2014. Hardy, Hooper and Hannah Whitish are the only Huskers with more than 200 career threes.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 pick, Kiera Hardy was one of the most explosive players in the Big 12 Conference in her three years as a starter.

Hardy tied Amy Stephens for second on the school single-season three-point list with 85 as a sophomore in 2004-05. Hardy added the junior single-season record with 81 in 2005-06.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection for the Huskers, Hardy joins Hooper, Karen Jennings, Maurtice Ivy and Kelsey Griffin as the only three-time first-team all-conference selections in NU history. She also joined Chelsea Aubry as the first two Huskers to earn four straight postseason tournament bids.

Before Hardy's arrival on campus, the Huskers had failed to advance to postseason play for three consecutive seasons.

As a freshman, Hardy came off the bench to average 9.1 points per game in 27 contests. She helped NU to the postseason after the Huskers went 8-20 the year before she arrived in Lincoln. As a sophomore, Hardy made a splash on the Big 12 and national scene by averaging 19 points per game. She grabbed national headlines with her 37-point eruption against eventual national champion Baylor, as the Huskers knocked off the then-No. 2 Lady Bears, 103-99 in triple overtime, on Jan. 12, 2005.

Hardy's effort against Baylor marked a career high and was one of four 30-point performances in her career. She capped her sophomore season by tying a then-school record with seven threes against Iowa in the Postseason WNIT.

After leading NU to a third straight WNIT trip as a junior, Hardy guided the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2000 as a senior. She produced the third-highest scoring total by a Husker in the NCAA Tournament with 23 points in a loss to Temple. Hardy was a third-round pick of the Connecticut Sun in the 2007 WNBA Draft.

Hardy played professionally for Haukar in Iceland before playing for Strakonice in the Czech Republic in 2009-10. She also played for the Kansas City Queenz in the WBCBL in 2010. She was an assistant coach at Texas-Pan American in 2012-13. She earned her master's degree from Grand Canyon in 2019. She completed her third season as the head girls basketball coach at St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City in 2022-23.

1,116 Points (24)

One of the most prolific passers in Nebraska history, Meggan Yedsena dished out 696 assists during her career for a record 5.8 assists per game. Yedsena owns four of the top 13 season assist totals in the Nebraska record books, including 195 in 1991-92, which stood as a school record until Rachel Theriot's 234 in 2013-14.

Meggan Yedsena started all 120 games of her career, dishing out 696 assists, while scoring 1,116 points.

Nebraska's all-time leading scorer Karen Jennings and 1,000-point club member Nafeesah Brown were the two major beneficiaries of Yedsena's passing proficiency.

Yedsena's 696 assists stood as an NU career record from 1993-94 until 2012-13, when Lindsey Moore totaled 699.

Yedsena's skill helped her earn Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year honors in 1990-91. She was a three-time second-team All-Big Eight pick, after earning honorable-mention all-league accolades as a freshman. Yedsena was also first-team academic All-Big Eight in 1991-92 and 1992-93.

The 5-8 point guard from Mahonoy, Pa., started 120 straight games during her career, averaging 9.3 points per game to finish with 1,116 points to rank 24th on Nebraska's all-time list. Her 297 steals established a Husker career mark until Nicole Kubik (418) surpassed it in 1998-99.

Yedsena set a career best with 12 assists in a 95-67 win over Oklahoma at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Jan. 26, 1991, and tied that mark in an 87-60 win at Arizona State on Jan. 4, 1994. Both totals are tied for ninth all time on the Nebraska single-game charts. Amazingly, Yedsena never scored 20 points in a single game, recording a career high with 19 points in Nebraska's 76-67 win over Kansas State on Feb. 11, 1994. Yedsena helped the Huskers to the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history with six points, seven assists and four rebounds in an 81-58 win over San Diego in Lincoln on March 17, 1993.

Yedsena spent the 2003 season with the Colorado Chill of the NWBL, before signing with the Birmingham Power for 2004. She spent 2001 and 2002 playing for the Schuykill (Pa.) Syrens in the Women's American Basketball Association, leading them to the championship game in the league's inaugural season.

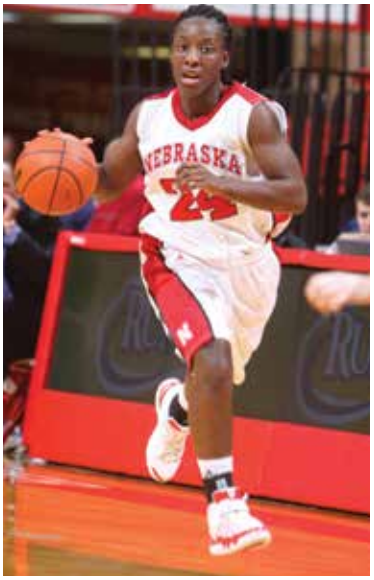
A four-year starter, Dominique Kelley was an outstanding all-around player who had her senior season cut short by knee injuries. The 2007 Nebraska High School Player of the Year at Lincoln Northeast, Kelley finished with 1,107 points despite missing nearly all of NU's final 20 games of the 2010-11 season.



Dominique Kelley started the first 109 games of her career. She was one of the top free throw shooters in school history.

As a starter in Nebraska's first 11 games as a senior, Kelley averaged 15.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists. She was on pace to finish among the top 15 players in school history in scoring, while also smashing the school record for career starts. However, a knee injury kept her off the floor for all but eight minutes in the Big 12 opener against Oklahoma on Jan. 8. She also earned a start on Senior Night against Colorado, when she played eight seconds.

Kelley is one of only seven freshmen in NU history to start every game. As a rookie in 2007-08, she made 33 starts and averaged 6.4 points and 2.9 rebounds while helping the Huskers to the second round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Kelley showed improvement as a sophomore, increasing her averages to 9.7 points and 3.3 rebounds per game, while helping an injury-ravaged NU team to the second round of the 2009 Postseason WNIT.

An honorable-mention All-Big 12 choice as a junior, Kelley started every game and helped the Huskers to the best year in school history. She increased her averages to 12.6 points and 3.9 rebounds, while continuing her lock-down defense. In the 2010 NCAA Tournament, Kelley helped NU to its first Sweet 16 with 22 points against No. 22 UCLA. In the round of 16, she added 22 points against No. 19 Kentucky. In three 2010 NCAA Tournament games, Kelley averaged 18.3 points, 3.3 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.0 steal. She hit 18-of-30 shots, including 3-of-4 threes. She also went 16-of-22 at the free throw line.

One of the top free throw shooters in NU history, Kelley's 90.7 percent (68-75) shooting as a senior ranks third in the Husker record book. She ranks 10th in career free throws made (383) and attempted (490).

Kelley earned her bachelor's degree in broadcasting from Nebraska in 2012. She earned her master's degree in education administration in 2014, after spending the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons as an NU graduate assistant. She was the coordinator of basketball operations at Drake in 2014-15, before being promoted to assistant coach in 2015-16. She returned to Lincoln in 2016. She and her husband, Clyde Johnson, have two children. She was the head coach at Lincoln High School for five seasons, leading the Links to a Class A runner-up finish as the 2023 Nebraska State Coach of the Year. Cain, who earned her bachelor's degree as a management major in just three years, elected to pursue a career in professional basketball.

A standout in the classroom, Cain was a three-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. She was also a four-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.
